

Objective

Seeking a Nurse Educator position with a well-respected university to utilize my nursing skills and advanced knowledge, positively impacting nursing education and preparing the next generation of nurses. Pursuing an employer that fosters professional development and continuing education.

Nursing Philosophy

My nursing philosophy focuses on adapting and meeting the students where they are. It is important to know that everyone does not learn the same way. I am very passionate about teaching. I teach with enthusiasm and a sense of purpose. I strive to role model the values of caring, diversity, inclusivity, integrity and excellence.
