Office: ARC 138

Office Hours: Office Hours: Monday/Wednesday 11:00-2:00 or by appointment.

NOTE: This syllabi is subject to change and students should refer to Canvas for current information.

Purpose and Objectives:

An online course that is a broad based exploration into the world of art through film and readings. Students will become familiar with a selection of contemporary and historical artists, artworks, and topics including a cultural and thematic approach.

Required Subscriptions and Content Access: For success in this class, you will need access to three sources of content delivery.

- 1. Amazon: www.amazon.com
- 2. Youtube: www.youtube.com
- 3. Canvas Access

NOTE: If you are not able to access any one of these content areas, please drop the course. Most of the films are provided and appropriate links to those films will be provided when the module is assigned. There may be some films that you will need to purchase through Amazon $1.99 to $5.99. Cost of films on Amazon should run less than $50 for the duration of the course. There is no charge for Youtube. With all film costs, total expense for the course should be less than the cost of a college text book.

Schedule: Major events will happen on Fridays (not necessarily everyFriday) for the duration of the class on or before 12:00 noon. To receive credit for that week, you must complete all requirements. On or just before Friday, you will receive assignments which can include

1. Announcement of a new film.
2. Review of video in your own words
3. Response to quiz questions
4. Relevance to art
5. Blog or discussion group entry
6. A writing assignment
7. Other instructions

Grading: Your grade for the course will be based on the successful completion of two types of response to the films:

1. Tests: You will receive a numerical, percentage grade on each test over the film you have watched. The grade average of all the tests will make up 80 to 90% of your grade in the course. There will five tests, one test every Friday that will last 20 minutes. The test will be comprised of 10 to 20 questions that are multiple choice. You should have no trouble making a good grade on the test IF.....that is

IF, you have watched the film carefully one or two times. It IS NOT possible to do well on the tests by reading a review of the film or watching parts of the film. WATCH THE ENTIRE FILM CAREFULLY!!!! DO NOT GIVE MAKE UP TESTS Tests are available to take for 24 hours at a time convenient to you. Once you begin the test, you will have 20 minutes to take the test so be sure you have a good connection, working computer and time to concentrate on nothing but the test.

2. Attendance: Since this is a 100% on line class, there will be no attendance taken in the traditional sense. Your attendance and participation will be determined by your responses to the required viewing, reading, and participation in discussion boards. Participation on the discussion boards is a requirement. A special discussion board will be set up for each film. You are expected to make intelligent, well considered posts. The remaining 10-20% of your grade will be based on my assessment of your attendance (participation) in the course. This is discretionary on my part, not strictly quantitative. For instance, if your tests average is an 89 and you have good participation in the course, I will most likely give you a "A" in the course. If your participation is low, you will most likely receive a "B" in the course.

Grading Scale for Course:

100-98	A+	82-80	B-	69-67	D+
97-93	A	79-77	C+	66-63	D
92-90	A-	76-73	C	62-60	D-
89-87	B+	72-70	C-	59 ↓	F
86-83	B

Some Suggestions to Succeeding in this Class

1. Watch the films carefully. Do not fast forward, do not read reviews in place of the film, do not ask a friend for notes....just watch the film carefully.
2. Approach the film content with an open mind. You will not like everything you are presented with in this class. In fact, I do not like everything I am sharing with you in this class. Art is a very personal thing. It is acceptable to strongly dislike some of the art or artists, but try to identify why, try and understand where the art or artist is coming from and form an opinion. Try not to just dismiss the art or artist from some other bias you have formed involving morality, religion, or social convention. Be open minded.
3. Do not even try to cheat. Canvas is smart. Professors are provided with a lot of information about your involvement in the course, when you log on, how often you log on, etc. Also every student is given a unique test and a limited time to take the test. Do not try to scam the system, you will do poorly on the test and in the course.
4. Log on regularly for messages and important information that will help you succeed in the course.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. (For Fall, the Census Date is Sept. 12.) Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

Revised 05/17 Student Absence for University-Sponsored Events and Activities If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, you (or the event sponsor) must notify the instructor at least two weeks prior to the date of the planned absence. At that time the instructor will set a date and time when make-up assignments will be completed.
