COURSE DESCRIPTION: Art 2303 is an introductory survey course focusing on artworks from Prehistoric, Mesopotamian, Egyptian, Greek, Roman, Early Christian, Byzantine, Islamic, and Early to Late Medieval European cultures. The iconography, stylistic development, cultural and historical context of various sculptures, paintings and architecture will be studied, as well as their religious and material functions within society.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: This course aims to provide a chronological account of the history of art. It seeks to develop visual literacy through the analysis of works of art, and to develop critical thinking skills through lectures, readings, writing assignments and class discussions. Three examinations and several writing projects, including a formal analysis, will test the student's general knowledge of information gained from class lectures and text. Core course SLO's below.

By the end of this course, students should be able to:

- THINK CRITICALLY: Critical thinking skills include (but are not limited to) creative thinking, innovation, inquiry and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information.
 - Students will learn to critically analyze works of art and architecture from the Pre-Historic to the Late Medieval period. They will learn how to analyze form (composition, technique, color, light/shadow) to determine how these elements work together to create meaning in art and architecture. Critical thinking skills will be assessed through two short papers and embedded exam questions.
- COMMUNICATE ABOUT ART USING ART HISTORICAL METHODOLOGIES: Communication skills include (but are not limited to) effective development, interpretation and extemporaneous expression of ideas through written and oral communication.
 - Students will analyze works of art, current scholarship, and contemporary methodologies through assigned readings and class discussion. Students will be assessed through embedded exam questions.
- WORK IN TEAMS: Teamwork skills include (but are not limited to) the ability to consider different points of view and work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal.
 - Students will be organized into groups to prepare and present a living tableau of a sculpture in order to compare and contrast works of art and demonstrate an understanding of formal elements and historical context. Teamwork skills will be assessed through the group project and self / peer assessment.
- BE SOCIALLY RESPONSIBLE BY UNDERSTANDING ART WITHIN CULTURAL AND HISTORICAL CONTEXTS: Social responsibility skills include (but are not limited to) intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities. Students will recognize the historical/cultural importance of objects, buildings, or place and the necessity of preservation.

- Students will develop a knowledge base of multiple cultures and understand how ethnic, racial, cultural, and gender issues are present within works of art. Students will be assessed through class discussion and embedded exam questions.

Each examination will cover only the material since the previous exam (in other words, no cumulative exams or final). No make-up exams will be given unless you are being hospitalized or there is a death in the family (requires documentation.) A separate handout will address exam format. A study sheet with a list of images will be handed out at least a week before each exam. See course calendar for dates of the exams. INFORMATION ON PLAGIARISM CONTINUED:

- ◆ It is unacceptable to copy something out of a book, newspaper, journal, Internet site or any printed source without citing your source. The most blatant example of this is directly copying something word for word. It does not matter if it is only a phrase. If it is not yours, you must either not use it or place it in quotes and reference it.
- ◆ If you paraphrase another person's words or ideas, you still must cite them as a source. Do not put a paraphrase in quotes, but be sure to give the author's name, the text and the page where you found the idea. (Use normal citation format.)
- ◆ In the “Critical Response Papers” in which all citations are from one single source given to you by the professor, you may reference the author by putting the last name and page number in parentheses after the sentence, example: (Cole, 95).

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census

Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. (For Fall, the Census Date is Sept. 12.) Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date (see exact date below) is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
