COURSE DESCRIPTION
Although technically rigorous and formally challenging, the intent of the course is primarily one of aesthetic pursuit and conceptual development. Students are expected to acquire a knowledge and skill level that permits the production of various printmaking techniques including: intaglio (line etching, aqua-tints, sugar-lifts, soft grounds, dry point, marbling, open-biting, acrylic process intaglio, photo intaglio), Relief techniques (woodcuts, linocuts), mono-prints, monotypes, collographs, viscosity prints and embossments. Registration procedures, documentation, curating, and presentation will be covered as well. These techniques will be explored as means of expanding the student’s artistic expression, but the student will be required to demonstrate his/her ability to utilized each specific technique, develop a serious inquiry into a body of work, and to improve their ability.

COURSE EXPECTATIONS

Staying On Task
Every two weeks two proofs (or prints) due: Students will maintain a form that requires the professor initials each time that they submitted the work. These checks represent 50% of Quantity category for both midterm and final folio grades (see grading criteria).

The quantity of required work is not a fixed number. The evaluation depends greatly on the sophistication, scale, ambition of the works, and the level of investigation. But to satisfy those of you who may be quantifiers, I offer the following as an example of average work:

FOR THE BEGINNING CLASS:
20 well-considered monotypes/monoprints.
4 relief prints: (one single plate run), (one multiple plate) (edition of 3 each).
3 intaglio prints: (one single run), (one multiple plate), (one alternative process), (edition of 3 each).

FOR THE ADVANCED CLASS:
All the above plus:
1 framed print (following museum standards set forth by the professor)
1 juried print competition (approved by professor)

Every Student is required to submit a:
Midterm Portfolio Due October 11, 2018
Final Portfolio Due December 6, 2018

This is a minimum expectation to pass the course. A successful experience depends greatly on the complexity and scale of each “cycle” of work. Students are encouraged to work diligently, engage in the process, and keep an eye on progress. Many hours outside of scheduled class time will be required to fulfill the expectations. Make the studio a place conducive to creativity and discipline for everyone. Students will have the opportunity for individual critiques with the professor, as well as group critiques.

ATTENDANCE
ATTENDANCE IS MANDATORY. EACH ABSENCE WILL LOWER THE STUDENTS GRADE 1/2 OF A LETTER. Students are expected to arrive early and be prepared for class by the scheduled start time. Leaving class early will be counted against the student's attendance. Any absence, with the exception of emergencies, will adversely affect grades. Students are encouraged to inform the professor prior to any scheduled absences, and to call the morning of any unexpected absence. ABSENCES ON DEMONSTRATION OR CRITIQUE DAYS ARE NOT ADVISED AND WILL LOWER THE STUDENTS GRADE ONE FULL LETTER GRADE. Any work or information missed due to absence is the responsibility of the student.

GRADING CRITERIA
1/3 Quality of work, (technically, conceptually, formally), and consideration of personal progress.
1/3 Quantity of work, (confirmation of staying on task, number of works completed, scale, and complexity).
1/3 Discussion with professor, attendance, work habits, Utilization of class-time, clean up, and participation in critiques.

Students will be provided written evaluation at midterm, which will be revisited upon final evaluation. The professor will not provide constant updates on grade status, but students are welcome to periodically discuss their progress with the professor.

COMMUNICATION ETIQUETTE: I am dedicated to helping each of you find your personal voice; I am available to meet with you before, during, or after scheduled classes. However, it would be best for you to make an appointment during my office hours, if this is impossible, we can arrange another time.

The best manner of contacting me is via email: jpace@uttyler.edu. I typically check my email multiple times a day, but please allow 24 hrs for a response. When using email, please adhere to proper email etiquette, such as: “My Dear Professor Pace, I have a question...” or simply Professor Pace, can you help me with this?..., I will not respond to “Dude, how’s it going?”, or “Whatsup?!”. Without proper subject line, respectful salutations, or clear content, I will not engage you with a response.

CLASSROOM ETIQUETTE: Developing and maintaining honest, open communication between professor and student as well as student to student requires social agreements. It is important to respect each other as human beings; respect other’s working space and materials. Our engagements will set an important tone to the ambiance of the studio, as well as promote an open dialogue among all of us.

Toward these ends, Please:
- Keep all cell phones off
- No headphones, earbuds
- No computers

OUR COMMUNICATIONS: When referring to any faculty member, please remember that they all have earned a high degree of respect, and should be referred to, or addressed as “Professor”, or “Dr.”. In any academic situation, sticking with “Professor ” is the safest path, until you have been invited to address your professors otherwise, even then, I would be circumspect as to the propriety of doing otherwise.

Likewise, engagements with university/departmental staff members should be equally respectful. Please understand that the staff members are critical partners in the department. Please refer to them as Mr./Mrs./Ms.
Disruptive behavior will not be tolerated and in extreme cases will result in the expulsion of the student from the class. Examples of such behavior include, but are not limited to, habitually arriving late, leaving early, and talking during instruction, failure to adhere to clearly stated policies.

Every two weeks two proofs (or prints) due: Students will maintain this form to confirm that they submitted the work. This requirement represents 50% of Quantity category for both midterm and final folio grades, (see grading criteria).

This form documents that you have completed/submitted two proofs/prints that show significant progress every two weeks. It is the responsibility of the student to maintain this form, secure the professor’s initialization, and ultimately to include in both midterm and final folios.

Lost or incomplete forms will result in a reduction of credit.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies
Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. (For Fall, the Census Date is Sept. 12.) Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar. Each semester’s Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date (Sept. 12th) is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:
- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a “W” grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
