Outside research is encourage, but must be documented with citations within the PowerPoint presentation. Undergraduates will give ONE PowerPoint presentation; Graduate students will give TWO presentations (approx. 20-25 mins each). Because the class is conducted in most part as a discussion, it is expected that each student will contribute fully by asking questions and making comments. (No sleeping in class! You will be counted ABSENT if you do.) Remember that the success of this class depends on the quality of the presentations and the preparation each student does in order to be fully engaged in discussions. If you are not committed to completing the readings, do not take this class.

IF YOU MISS YOUR ASSIGNED DATE TO PRESENT YOU WILL RECEIVE A ZERO “0” ON THE ASSIGNMENT. NO MAKE-UPS, NO LATE PRESENTATIONS, NO EXCUSES.

CANVAS Discussions on Readings: There will be online discussions about two of the readings on CANVAS. This is a graded assignment and must be done as part of the course.

Writing Assignments: Each student will submit four (4) writing assignments, ALL uploaded up on CANVAS and checked for plagiarism. The first 3 assignments are critical responses to assigned readings. Papers will be written according to the “Art History Writing Guidelines,” posted up on CANVAS. Graduate students are expected to write papers that are longer and more in-depth. Papers will be as follows (exact readings will be given in the Course Calendar). The final research paper REQUIRES a minimum of 5 different sources of research; 2 of them must be primary sources (detailed instructions about the assignment and an explanation of allowed sources and primary sources will be on CANVAS).
What you should strive for in your papers:
You are required to demonstrate an understanding of the readings and concepts discussed in class. Your papers must contain your own ideas and opinions. Use quotes sparingly. Never use an author’s words without crediting the author. Introduce the author before quoting from him/her. You should credit an author even when paraphrasing their ideas, if you do not it is plagiarism. Graduate students must demonstrate a master’s level quality of writing that integrates history, analysis and contemporary scholarship into their own assessment of art and art history. Originality of thought is required.

NO LATE PAPERS ACCEPTED. PERIOD.

Plagiarize \pla-je-.riz also j - vb -rized; -riz·ing vt [plagiary]: to steal and pass off (the ideas or words of another) as one's own : use (a created production) without crediting the source vi: to commit literary theft: present as new and original an idea or product derived from an existing source - pla· gia·riz·er n

a. It is unacceptable to copy something out of a book, newspaper, journal, Internet site or any printed source without citing your source. The most blatant example of this is directly copying something word for word. It does not matter if it is only a phrase. If it is not yours, you must either not use it or place it in quotes and reference it.

b. If you paraphrase another person’s words or ideas, you still must cite them as a source. Do not put a paraphrase in quotes, but be sure to give the author’s name, the text and the page where you found the idea. (Use normal citation format.)

c. In the “Critical Response Papers” in which all citations are from one single source given to you by the professor, you may reference the author by putting the last name and page number in parentheses after the sentence, example: (Cole, 95).

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies
Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. (For Fall, the Census Date is Sept. 12.) Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at http://www.uttyle.edu/registrar. Each semester’s Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date (see exact date below) is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

• Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
• Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
• Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a “W” grade)
• Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
• Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy
Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
