COURSE DESCRIPTION:

ART 4391-001 / ART 5390-001 is a seminar course that will examine the art that was being created in France Impressionist and Post-Impressionist periods. This course will engage the key artists, themes, techniques, and ideas of the period. The artists and their art will be considered within the context of the social and cultural history of the period and their influence on subsequent artists will also be addressed.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

This course aims to investigate the key stylistic and thematic components of Impressionist and Post-Impressionist art in light of the social and cultural milieu in which the artists lived and produced their work. It seeks to develop visual literacy through the analysis of works of art, and to develop critical thinking skills through lectures, readings, writing assignments, presentations, and class discussions. Article responses, presentations, and a research paper will test students’ general knowledge of information gained from class lectures and discussions and assigned texts. There will be no exams in this course. Core course SLO’s are found below.

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- CRITICAL WRITING: Students will be able to write research papers that demonstrate a thoughtful and critical approach to analysis of a work of art.
- CRITICAL THINKING: Students will be able to demonstrate extemporaneous critical thinking about works of art.
- HISTORICAL IDENTIFICATION: Students will be able to identify major art styles and movements over the course of human history.
• SYNTHESIZE KNOWLEDGE: Students will be able to write research papers that integrate history, formal analysis, and contemporary scholarship in order to develop original scholarship of their own.

RECOMMENDED TEXT:

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION:

Attendance and active participation in class discussions are required. Class meets twice per week. Class attendance is mandatory. Excessive tardiness will count as absenteeism. Each absence will count off 10 points out of 100 point total for attendance grade. Students who are late or who leave early will be given half credit for attendance. These policies will be strictly enforced.
Participation in class discussions is a crucial element of this course. Students are required to complete each day’s readings in advance and be prepared to discuss and ask questions about the readings. Discussion and participation in class is a key component of the attendance and participation grade.

In the event of an absence the student is responsible for obtaining class lecture notes from a classmate. If a student knows he/she is going to be late or absent, the student should inform the instructor in person or via email prior to class. Students will receive a participation grade, which is 10% of the total grade for undergraduate students and 6% of the total grade for graduate students. Students are expected to attend class, to complete the readings and assignments, and to participate in class discussions. The professor may ask questions in class on assigned readings. If the professor feels that students are not keeping up with the reading assignments or with the discussion, pop quizzes may be given.

READING ASSIGNMENTS:

All reading assignments should be completed before the lectures for which they are assigned. A course calendar with assigned readings will be handed out in class (and posted on Blackboard). Students are required to read all the assigned articles and to actively participate in class discussions of the readings.

EXAMINATIONS:

There will be no examinations in this course.

TWO PRESENTATIONS (UNDERGRADUATE)/THREE PRESENTATIONS (GRADUATE):

Undergraduate students will give a total of two (2) presentations. One (1) of these presentations will cover an article assigned to the class. Students will either choose or be assigned the article on which they will present. The reading presentation may cover one article or, if the articles are short, two articles. Reading presentations will include the use of images via PowerPoint. At the beginning of class, students should turn in a hard copy of their slides. Students will explain/summarize the main points/arguments of the article(s) in question and will offer a critique of the article. Students will also respond to questions about the article from their fellow students. Students should be prepared to present at the beginning of the class period for which the reading(s) is/are assigned. A guidelines sheet will be handed out and uploaded to Blackboard. For undergraduate students, each reading presentation must be ten (10) minutes long. The time allotted for questions does not count as part of this ten minutes.

Graduate students will give a total of three (3) presentations. Two (2) of these presentations will cover articles assigned to the class. Students will either choose or be assigned the articles on which they will present. These reading presentations may cover one article or, if the articles are short, two articles. These presentations will include the use of images via PowerPoint. At the beginning of class, students should turn in a hard copy of their slides.
Students will explain/summarize the main points/arguments of the article(s) in question and will offer a critique of the article. Students will also respond to questions about the article from their fellow students. Students should be prepared to present at the beginning of the class period for which the reading(s) is/are assigned. A guidelines sheet will be handed out and uploaded to Blackboard. For graduate students, each reading presentation must be fifteen (15) minutes long. The time allotted for questions does not count as part of this fifteen minutes. Students’ grades will be negatively affected if the presentations are too short.

AND

Undergraduate and graduate students will also give one (1) presentation based on their research papers. This presentation will include the use of images via PowerPoint. At the beginning of class, students should turn in a hard copy of their slides. Students will present their research to the class and will respond to questions from their fellow students. The days on which students will present will be randomly assigned. On the assigned date, students must come to class prepared to present. A guidelines sheet will be handed out and uploaded to Blackboard. For undergraduate students, each research paper presentation must be twenty (20) minutes long. The time allotted for questions does not count as part of this twenty minutes. For graduate students, each research paper presentation must be thirty (30) minutes long. The time allotted for questions does not count as part of this thirty minutes. Students’ grades will be negatively affected if the presentations are too short.

Students who present should be prepared to answer questions about their presentations. Students who are not presenting that day should be prepared to actively engage in a scholarly discussion about the material. This class is discussion based so failure to engage in class discussions or to ask questions will negatively affect students’ grades.

Late presentations are not permitted. If you are absent the day on which you are scheduled to present, you will receive a zero (0). You will not be allowed to give a make-up presentation.

Five writing assignments (undergraduate)/Four writing assignments (graduate):

Undergraduate students will submit a total of five (5) writing assignments to the professor.

Graduate students will submit a total of four (4) writing assignments to the professor.

Critical Response Papers

Two (2) writing assignments are critical responses to assigned readings. The specific dates of the assigned readings are listed on the course calendar. These readings will be posted on Blackboard. All written assignments are to be turned in as typed, hard copy papers and are due at the beginning of class on the due date. A guidelines sheet will be handed out and uploaded to Blackboard. The critical reading responses should follow these guidelines exactly. For undergraduate students, the critical response papers must be a minimum of three (3) full pages, double-spaced. The font must be Times New Roman in size 12. Undergraduate critical response papers must be at least 3 full pages and graduate response papers must be at least 4 full pages. No exceptions.

Undergraduate students must turn in a critical response paper for the article(s) on which they present. These papers are due at the beginning of class the day on which the student presents. Thus, undergraduate students will turn in one critical response paper for the reading on which they present. For undergraduates, the second critical response paper must be turned in at the beginning of class on Monday, 6 March.

Graduate students will turn in a critical response paper for each of their two reading presentations.

Undergraduate Film Review

Undergraduate students will submit a review of a film that will be watched in class. This paper must be a minimum of two (2) full pages, double-spaced. The font must be Times New Roman in size 12. Hard copies of the film review must be submitted at the beginning of class on Wednesday, 8 February.

AND

Reach Paper Topic Proposal

Undergraduate and graduate students will submit a proposed topic for their research papers. The topic must be approved by the professor in order for the student to conduct research for the paper. If the topic is not approved, the student must meet with the professor in order to discuss another topic. The research paper topic proposal must be a minimum of one paragraph (three to six complete sentences). Students are not required to submit a cover page with their research paper topic proposal. The research paper topic proposal is due at the beginning of class on Monday, 27 February. Late submissions of the research paper topic proposal will not be accepted.

AND

Research Paper

The final research paper for both undergraduate and graduate students will be turned in the last day of class (Wednesday, 26 April) and uploaded onto SafeAssign on Blackboard, which checks for plagiarism, by 12:30 p.m. on Wednesday, 26 April. A guidelines sheet will be handed out and uploaded to Blackboard. The research paper should follow these guidelines exactly. For undergraduate students, the research paper must be a minimum of eight (8) full pages, double-spaced. The font must be Times New Roman in size 12. The margins must be 1-inch on all four sides. For graduate students, the critical response papers must be a minimum of ten (10) to twelve (12) full pages, double-spaced. The font must be Times New Roman in size 12. The margins must be 1-inch on all four sides. Graduate students are expected to write papers that are longer and more in-depth. Undergraduate research papers must be at least eight (8) full pages and graduate research papers must be at least ten (10) full pages. No exceptions.

For the research paper, a minimum of five different sources are required. Two (2) must be primary sources. Any sources must be cited using Chicago Manual of Style. Students must use footnotes and must include a works cited page. Websites such as Wikipedia or personal blogs may NOT be used as sources.

* LATE PAPERS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED.*

DO NOT PLAGIARIZE. ANYONE CAUGHT PLAGIARIZING WILL AUTOMATICALLY RECEIVE A ZERO (0) ON THE ASSIGNMENT.

IMPORTANT FORMATTING NOTE

If students use programs other than Word, such as Pages or GoogleDocs, their papers must still conform to the above guidelines. Programs other than Word tend to have formatting issues that result in documents not conforming to the Word template (and, thus, to the above requirements) when printed out. Thus, students must make sure that, when printed out, their papers are still meet the above requirements for each paper. Papers must meet minimum page requirements. Papers must be double-spaced. Font must be Times New Roman in size 12.Margins must be 1-inch on all four sides. Students must be aware of these issues and take them into account when writing and printing out papers.

Expectations for the papers:

Student papers will be graded both for content and for grammar. Students should proofread their papers to ensure grammatical correctness and coherence of thought. Papers must contain a thesis statement and supporting arguments. Students’ papers should contain original ideas, opinions, and arguments. Students should not simply quote or paraphrase the research of other scholars.

In-text citations, footnotes, or endnotes and a works cited page are mandatory. Failure to properly cite authors is considered plagiarism. Students must not reference another author’s work without citing that author. If you paraphrase an author, students must cite this author or it is plagiarism.

Graduate students must demonstrate a master’s level quality of writing and art historical research and analysis. Graduate papers must incorporate formal analysis, history, contemporary scholarship, and proper methodological considerations while also integrating students’ own assessment of art and art history. Proper citations are mandatory.

SUBMISSION OF ASSIGNMENTS:

Students are expected to keep an extra hard copy of all assignments turned in to the professor. The professor will only accept HARD COPIES of written assignments. Students may be requested to upload electronic copies on Blackboard in the safe-assign drop box, which checks for plagiarism, but students must still submit hard copies to the professor. Late assignments will NOT be accepted. Hard copies of papers must be turned in at the beginning of class on the date on which they are due. Please do not e-mail any assignments to the professor. No papers will be accepted via email.

A course calendar with reading, assignments, and presentation due dates will be handed out in class. The course calendar is subject to change.

Please put your phone on silent mode or turn it off. Putting your phone on vibrate does NOT count as turning it off. Put your phone away and keep it out of sight during class. Students will be reprimanded and marked absent if they use their phones in the classroom. For the first offense, a student will be marked absent for the day. For the second offense, a student will be told to leave the classroom and will be marked absent for the day.

If there is some kind of emergency situation which requires a student to keep his or her phone on, he or she must consult with the professor prior to class and receive the professor’s express permission to keep a phone on.

Do not pack up your things before the end of class. It is distracting and rude. You will not be kept late so wait until the instructor is finished.

Do not photograph or record (visual or audio) the professor. Students do not have permission to visually record or to record the audio of any lectures during or outside of class. Students do not have permission to photograph the instructor without consent.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

All cheating and/or plagiarism will be treated with the utmost severity as per UT Tyler policy. Please consult A Student Guide to Conduct and Discipline at UT Tyler (available in the Office of Student Affairs) for university regulations regarding academic dishonesty: “3.22 Any student who commits an act of scholastic dishonesty is subject to discipline. Scholastic dishonesty includes but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts.”

DO NOT PLAGIARIZE. ANYONE CAUGHT PLAGIARIZING WILL AUTOMATICALLY RECEIVE A ZERO (0) ON THE ASSIGNMENT.

If students paraphrase another individual’s words or idea, this must be cited or it is considered plagiarism. The paraphrased material does not need to be in quotation marks but the author and source must be properly cited.

For the Critical Response Papers, in which all citations are from one single source assigned by the professor, students may reference the author by putting the last name and page number in parentheses after a sentence containing material that needs to be cited. Ex: (Wolf, 151).

STUDENTS RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

To know and understand the policies that affect your rights and responsibilities as a student at UT Tyler, please follow this link: http://www2.uttyler.edu/wellness/rightsresponsibilities.php
GRADE REPLACEMENT / FORGIVENESS AND CENSUS DATE POLICIES:

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at http://www.uttler.edu/registrar. Each semester’s Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions that students need to be aware of. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a “W” grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

STATE-MANDATED COURSE DROP POLICY:

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date). Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
