COURSE DESCRIPTION: In this course we will exam art produced in Italy and Spain during the Sixteenth Century. The class will begin with High Renaissance artists, such as Leonardo, Michelangelo, Titian and Raphael, and then continue with Mannerist artists including Giulio Romano, Pontormo, Rosso Fiorentino, Parmigianino, Bronzino, Tintoretto, Arcimboldo, Giambologna, Sofonisba Anguissola, El Greco and others. A variety of art historical methodologies will be applied for interpreting artworks, while placing them in historical context. The traditional cannon of art during this period will be examined with a look at its formulation by Giorgio Vasari.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: to familiarize students with a variety of artists producing works in the sixteenth century while attending to how their status may have changed through the lens of modern and post-modern theory. Students will develop written and oral communications skills through discussions, PowerPoint presentations and writing assignments. In addition, students will achieve a thorough understanding of at least two artists (for graduate students, it will be three), placing them within their historical context and creating a PowerPoint presentation about them. Students will choose one artist upon whom they will write their research paper. This course is intended to develop critical thinking skills.

Student Learning Outcomes are as follows:

UNDERGRADUATES:

CRITICAL WRITING: Students will be able to write research papers that demonstrate a thoughtful and critical approach to analysis of a work of art.
CRITICAL THINKING: Students will be able to demonstrate extemporaneous critical thinking about works of art.
HISTORICAL IDENTIFICATION: Students will be able to identify major art styles and movements over the course of human history (the Renaissance period).
SYNTHESIZE KNOWLEDGE: Students will be able to write research papers that integrate history, formal analysis, and contemporary scholarship in order to develop original scholarship of their own.
ANALYSIS OF ART HISTORICAL THEORY: Students will be able to write a summation and critical analysis of contemporary scholarly essays in order to compare and contrast academic points of view. (This will be done in your research paper when addressing current scholarship in the field.)
ANALYZE WORKS: Students will be able to write a formal analysis of a work of art as part of a research paper.

GRADUATE STUDENTS:

CRITICAL THINKING: Students will demonstrate critical thinking about works of art.
SYNTHESIZE KNOWLEDGE: Students will write research papers that integrate history, formal analysis, and contemporary scholarship in order to develop original scholarship of their own.
CRITICAL WRITING: Students will write research papers that demonstrate a thoughtful and critical approach to a work of art.
APPLY SCHOLARSHIP: Students will write research papers that integrate contemporary scholarship into their own assessment of art and art history.
ANALYZE SCHOLARSHIP: Students will review literature and analyze scholarly methodology as part of the thesis project.
ORAL PROFICIENCY: Students will present their original scholarship as part of the requirements for art history courses.
CLASS FORMAT: Power-point lectures given by the professor and students, as well as class discussions on readings, which will be led by students and facilitated by the professor. No Exams.

REQUIRED TEXTS:

- S. J. Freedberg, Painting in Italy 1500-1600, Yale University Press, 1993 or any other edition

Additional reading assignments will be placed on Canvas or handed out in class.

CANVAS: All assignments, course calendar, grades and announcements will be posted on CANVAS. If you need technical support, contact the UT IT department: on campus, ext. 5555, off campus, (903) 565-5555, or email: itsupport@patriots.uttyler.edu

REQUIREMENTS:

Attendance & Participation in class discussions are required. You will receive an Attendance Grade, which will be marked down 10 points (out of 100) for every class missed. Students are required to read all assigned material.

Student PowerPoint Presentations on a selected artist. You will sign up to present and lead class discussions on two artists/readings. Graduate students will present on three artists/readings. Since the class is conducted in most part as a discussion, it is expected that each student will contribute fully by asking questions and making comments. (No sleeping in class! No leaving early!) Remember that the success of this class depends on the quality of the presentations and the preparation each student does in order to be fully engaged in discussions. If a student is not committed to completing the readings and creating excellent presentations do not take this class. PowerPoint preparation takes 8-15 hours.

IF YOU MISS YOUR ASSIGNED DATE TO PRESENT YOU WILL RECEIVE A ZERO “0” ON THE ASSIGNMENT. NO MAKE-UPS, NO LATE PRESENTATIONS, NO EXCUSES.

Assigned reading should be completed before the discussion / lectures for which they are assigned. Course calendar with assigned readings will be handed out in class (and posted on Canvas).

Examinations: There will be no examinations in this class.

2 Writing Assignments: Each student will submit TWO (2) writing assignments. The first assignment is a review of “Casanova: The Seduction of Europe” exhibition at the Kimbell Art Museum to be turned in as hard copy paper, typed, due at the beginning of class on the date due with IMAGES. Instructions will be handed out in class. https://www.kimbellart.org/exhibition/casanova-seduction-europe The final research paper will be uploaded onto CANVAS, which checks for plagiarism. Papers will be written according to Chicago Manual Style (see the “Art History Writing Guidelines”), which will be handed out in class and posted up on Canvas. Graduate students are expected to write papers at the higher range of length with the use of more sources and include at least two primary sources in the final research paper. FOOTNOTES & BIBLIOGRAPHY REQUIRED FOR ALL PAPERS. Chicago Manual of Style. http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/home.html

What you should strive for in your papers:
You are required to demonstrate an understanding of the readings and concepts discussed in class. Your papers must contain your own ideas and opinions, but respond to theories presented by other scholars. Use quotes sparingly. Never use an author’s words without crediting them. In the body of your paper, introduce the author of any quotes used. You should credit an author even when paraphrasing their ideas, if you do not it is plagiarism. NO LATE PAPERS ACCEPTED. PERIOD.

Plagiarize /pla-je-riz also j -ə- / vb -rized; -riz-ing vt [plagiary]: to steal and pass off (the ideas or words of another) as one's own : use (a created production) without crediting the source vi: to commit literary theft: present as new and original an idea or product derived from an existing source - plagi-ar-er n

- a. It is unacceptable to copy something out of a book, newspaper, journal, Internet site or any printed source without citing your source. The most blatant example of this is directly copying something word for word. It does not matter if it is only a phrase. If it is not yours, you must either not use it or place it in quotes and reference it.

- b. If you paraphrase another person’s words or ideas, you still must cite them as a source. Do not put a paraphrase in quotes, but be sure to give the author’s name, the text and the page where you found the idea. (Use normal citation format.)
c. In the “Critical Response Papers” in which all citations are from one single source given to you by the professor, you may reference the author by putting the last name and page number in parentheses after the sentence, example: (Cole, 95).

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies
Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. (For Fall, the Census Date is Sept. 12.) Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar. Each semester’s Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date (see exact date below) is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a “W” grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy
Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).
Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
