Professional Communication

When referring to any faculty member, please remember that they all have earned a high degree of respect, and should be referred to, or addressed as "Professor", or "Dr.". In any academic situation, sticking with "Professor" is the safest path, until you have been invited to address your professors otherwise, even then, I would be circumspect as to the propriety of doing otherwise. Likewise, engagements with university/departmental staff members should be equally respectful. Please understand that the staff members are critical partners in the department. Please refer to them as Mr./Mrs./Ms.

Attendance: Students enrolled in ART 5370 are expected to set individual work schedules that allow for the student to produce a significant and self-directed body of work. It is expected that the student will be an active and involved presence in the art studio. Setting a consistent studio schedule with ample dedicated studio time/presence, is expected. Students who anticipate being absent due to religious observance should inform the instructor in writing by the end of the second week of class. Faculty should initial the request to indicate approval.

Committee Selection and First Semester Graduate Student Requirements: First semester graduate candidates are required to meet with each and every faculty member during the semester, prior to selecting a committee. It is the responsibility of the candidate to solicit, schedule, and confirm these meetings. At the end of the first semester the candidate must select a graduate committee. The candidate shall select a Chair for his or her committee and invite additional faculty members to sit on the committee, typically a minimum of two more faculty are selected to serve (totaling a minimum of 3 members). This is an invitation and must be formalized by acceptance by the faculty member. Once a committee is confirmed, please forward this information to the Graduate Advisors Professor Serio and Professor Hughes. Changes to a committee may be made up until the end of the third semester. Please see the current MA and MA/MFA graduate program policies and guidelines for detailed information about changes to the committee.

Critiques with Committee Members: After the selection of a graduate committee and in accordance with the MA and MA/MFA studio art graduate policies, graduate students are required to schedule regular critiques/updates with their committee members at least once every month during each semester in which the candidate is registered for credit. At this point, meetings with faculty who do not serve on the committee may be limited to full department critiques or at the requested at the discretion of the student throughout the semester. It is important to realize that the graduate student is expected to have continual dialogue with his or her committee, and that the dialogue need not be a formal critique. In addition to critiques and informal meetings it is highly recommended that students provide committee members with an email update of their progress to date every two weeks. The critique/update is intended to maintain an appropriate level of communication between student and committee members.

It is the candidate's responsibility to schedule these critiques/updates and to maintain a critique confirmation form signed by the professor who conducts the critique/update. The form can be found in the most current version of the MA and MA/MFA studio art policies and guidelines manual available on the department website. This form must be turned in to the Studio Art Graduate Coordinator at the end of each semester.

Beginning, Mid-Semester & End-of-Semester Reviews: All MA or MA/MFA candidates will participate in a review/critique three times each semester. The Graduate Faculty, all faculty members of the Department of Art + Art History, and all graduate students are required to attend and participate. The beginning and midterm reviews are for the graduate students and faculty, the final review is open to the undergraduate cohort as well. Every graduate student is required to participate by showing and discussing current work at the date and time scheduled.

The student's committee will determine semester grades.

During the final critique, candidates will be expected to present an oral defense of the work.

Graduate MA or MA/MFA candidates must provide the graduate faculty with the following at the end of semester graduate review/critique:

1) Artist statement, following the criteria below:

- Title Page: conventional page showing essential bibliographical information
- Artist Statement: the main body of the statement
- Students will provide a hard copy of the artist statement in a notebook at the end of semester review/critique, as well as a digital copy to all faculty members.
- The artist statement should be thoroughly considered, well written and edited. Students are encouraged to seek assistance through the writing center.

2) Photographic documentation of the semester's work, following the criteria below:

- Images should be professional and of the highest quality.
- Students will provide a hard copy of the images in a notebook at the end of semester review/critique, as well as a digital copy to all committee members.
- List of works including titles, media, and size should accompany the hard and digital copies.

3) Curriculum vitae

4) Artist's biography

5) Statement of influences

Final Semester Grade: Your final grade (100%) for the semester is based on the quality, quantity, and formal and conceptual development of the body of work created during the semester. Your final semester grade will be determined after the final semester graduate critique and in consultation with the student's graduate committee.

Numeric to Letter Grade Translation: 100 - 90% = A 89 - 80% = B 79 - 70% = C 69 - 60% = D 59 - 0% = F

*Poor attendance/participation and non-adherence to deadlines will result in a lowered grade. Remember, you will be working two to three times as much outside of class as in class.

Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date (Sept. 12th) is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
