Marketable Skills for Academic Degree Programs

Degree and Major: MA in Art History

After completing the MA in Art History degree program at UT Tyler, the student can:

Soft Skills:	Hard Skills:	Unique Features of Program (what separates UT Tyler's program from others)
• Address challenging problems and issues through: creative thinking, inquiry, innovation, analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of information including numerical data or observable facts.	• Demonstrate critical thinking about works of art.	• Career supports throughout the entire degree program.
• Respond in an ethical manner by connecting data, behavior, choices, consequences to ethical theories.	• Synthesize knowledge by integrating history, formal analysis, and contemporary scholarship into research papers in order to develop original scholarship of their own.	• Small class sizes and individualized instruction.
• Communicate ideas effectively through written, oral, and visual delivery modes.	• Write critical research papers that demonstrate a thoughtful and critical approach to a work of art.	• Curriculum focused on student research.
• Work effectively in teams.	• Apply contemporary scholarship to their own assessment of art and art history.	• Internship program with regional art institutions.
 Advance the human condition through learned international cultural competence, knowledge of civil responsibility, and a foundational knowledge of human behavior. 	• Analyze scholarship by reviewing literature and analyze scholarly methodology.	• Students are encouraged and supported in disseminating their research in regional and national academic and/or professional settings.
	Give presentations of original scholarship.	• Students are exposed to contemporary and historic art and artists through department sponsored programming, such as annual bus trips to regional museum or art collection, exhibition programming, and visiting artist/scholar programming.