ATTENDENCE AND PARTICIPATION
Because of the importance of your participation in this, you should attend each class session. You will be excused for university excused absences but you should let me know before the event. Work related obligations and illnesses will also be excused but some evidence of the obligation/illness must be provided for my records. If you fail to log into the course as assigned, that will not be factored in your participation grade.

Make-up presentations or exams will not be scheduled.

CLASS POLICIES
✓ Class starts promptly at 4 PM. If you have a problem that prohibits you from arriving on time, please inform me as soon as possible. If this is a continuing issue, please select a seat near the entrance.
✓ If you must leave class before the end of the period, let me know as soon as possible and no later than the beginning of the class period.
✓ Electronic devices (phones, laptops, IPads, IPods, etc.) must be deactivated during class. Texting or surfing the www is not allowed and you will be dismissed from class.
✓ Textbooks, materials and calculators should be brought to class.
✓ Courtesy to the professor and other students is expected. The class will engage in open discussion. Side conversations are disrespectful to others and are inappropriate behavior.
✓ Dishonesty is unacceptable behavior and will not be tolerated.
✓ Class assignments are due at the beginning of the class period. If you wish to make notes or corrections on your work, bring two copies – one to submit and another for your use. Each submission contributes to your overall course grade and participation.
✓ Extra-credit assignments will not be available on an individual basis. Please do not embarrass yourself or the professor by asking.

CLASS LECTURE & READING ASSIGNMENTS
Chapters should be read prior to coming to class. All course lectures, in class activities, and discussions assume that you have completed the required reading prior to coming to class. Wahlen, Jones & Pagach: Intermediate Accounting: Reporting and Analysis, 1st edition, the required text for this class, is an essential part of your classroom experience and a key component to you being prepared and succeeding in this course.

EXAMINATIONS (80% OF FINAL GRADE)
Three achievement exams and a comprehensive final exam will be given during the semester. The content and format of the exams will vary, but may include any of the following: multiple choice questions, problems, exercises, matching, or essays. During exams, only simple four-function calculators are allowed. Sharing calculators is not permitted. No programmable calculators or cell phones are allowed during an examination.

Make-up exams are not provided. Under extenuating conditions (hospitalization, medical emergency, physical injury, or death of an immediate family member), a special time to take the exam before the exam results are discussed with the class must be scheduled. You MUST bring proof of your medical issue (or death), in order to facilitate the special arrangement. All athletes must present (at the beginning of the semester) a schedule of approved absences in order to make up work.

If you believe there is an error in grading of an exam, bring it to my attention within two weeks of the date that the exam is graded by stating your reason in writing.

CASES/PROJECTS (10% OF FINAL GRADE)
At least one case/project will be assigned. The project will require using the skills and competence gained in this course. Results of the project may require an oral presentation. The cases will require analysis of accounting data and written conclusions/recommendations in a professional business format. Solutions will be graded for completeness, accuracy, and professionalism. Please type or word-process your written work. No handwritten cases are accepted. Electronic documents are accepted in Microsoft Word or Excel only. No late cases will be accepted.

QUIZZES, HOMEWORK, AND PARTICIPATION (10% OF FINAL GRADE)
Students should understand that accounting is an applied discipline and working problems is essential to the learning of accounting. Therefore, quizzes, homework, and participation constitute 10% of your final grade. Attendance will be taken for each class and will be considered when evaluating participation. Class participation is highly encouraged and students will be called upon during class.

Homework assignments must be handwritten (no word or excel homework assignments will be accepted) and will be randomly collected and graded for accuracy and completeness. Quizzes or in-class assignments may be administered. These quizzes and assignments may not be made up and no late assignments will be accepted.

Homework should be completed (attempted) prior to coming to class on the suggested completion date. Experience has shown that a clear understanding of accounting concepts and principles requires working through problems. While it can be difficult and even frustrating, the end result of understanding will serve you well in the future. Consultation with others on the suggested problems (only) is highly encouraged but you should not copy another student’s work.

BLACKBOARD
All course material is available on Blackboard. Announcements, assignments, grades, PPT slides, case projects, and activities are posted on Blackboard. You should check Blackboard regularly for updates. You are responsible for meeting deadlines and retrieving any information from Blackboard. Grades posted on Blackboard throughout the semester are not weighted per the course evaluation schedule but are posted for your review. Final weighted grades will be posted on Blackboard at the end of the semester using the weighting stated previously under Evaluation.

GRADE REPLACEMENT/FORGIVENESS
If you are repeating this course for a grade replacement, you must file an intent to receive grade forgiveness with the registrar by the 12th day of class. Failure to do so will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates will receive grade forgiveness (grade replacement) for only three course repeats during his/her career at UT Tyler.

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS ETHICAL GOALS:
The ethical problems facing local, national and global business communities are an ever-increasing challenge. It is essential the College of Business and Technology help students prepare for lives of personal integrity, responsible citizenship, and public service. In order to accomplish these goals, both students and faculty of the College of Business and Technology at The University of Texas at Tyler will:
- Ensure honesty in all behavior, never cheating or knowingly giving false information.
- Create an atmosphere of mutual respect for all students and faculty regardless of race, creed, gender, age or religion.
- Develop an environment conducive to learning.
- Encourage and support student organizations and activities.
- Protect property and personal information from theft, damage and misuse.
- Conduct yourself in a professional manner both on and off campus.

STUDENTS RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES
To know and understand the policies that affect your rights and responsibilities as a student at UT Tyler, please follow this link:
http://www.uttyler.edu/wellness/StudentRightsandResponsibilities.html

STATE-MANDATED COURSE DROP POLICY
Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the 12th day of class.
Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Registrar’s Office and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstances. Please contact the Registrar’s Office if you have any questions.

DISABILITY SERVICES
In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodation must provide documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Support Services counselor. If you have a disability, including a learning disability, for which you request an accommodation, please contact Ida MacDonald in the Disability Support Services office in UC 282, or call (903) 566-7079.

STUDENT ABSENCE DUE TO RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE
Students who anticipate being absent from class due to a religious observance are requested to inform the instructor of such absences by the second class meeting of the semester.

STUDENT ABSENCE FOR UNIVERSITY-SPONSORED EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES
If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, you (or the event sponsor) must notify the instructor at least two weeks prior to the date of the planned absence. At that time the instructor will set a date and time when make-up assignments will be completed.

SOCIAL SECURITY AND FERPA STATEMENT:
It is the policy of The University of Texas at Tyler to protect the confidential nature of social security numbers. The University has changed its computer programming so that all students have an identification number. The electronic transmission of grades (e.g., via e-mail) risks violation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act; grades will not be transmitted electronically.

DISHONEST STATEMENT
Faculty expect student to perform at a high level of responsibility and academic honesty. Because the value of an academic degree depends upon the absolute integrity of the work deployed by the student for that degree, it is imperative that a student demonstrate a high standard of individual honor in his or her scholastic work.

Scholastic dishonesty include, but is not limited to, statements, acts or omissions related to admission for enrollment of the award of a degree, and/or the submission, as one’s own work of material that is not one’s own. As a general rule, scholastic dishonesty involves one of the following acts: cheating, plagiarism, collusion and/or falsifying academic records. Students found to be dishonest are subject to UT Tyler disciplinary proceedings.

EMERGENCY EXITS AND EVACUATION
Everyone is required to exit the building when a firm alarm goes off. Follow Dr. Fischer’s directions regarding the appropriate exit. If you require assistance during an evacuation, inform Dr. Fischer in the first week of class. DO NOT re-enter the building unless given permission by University Police, Fire Department or Fire Prevention Services.
