The 2013 Family and Small Business Forum

Plan to attend the inaugural Family and Small Business Forum on Thursday, July 18, 2013, 11:30 a.m.- 1 p.m. at the UT Tyler Ornelas Activity Center. The Forum will focus on issues in leadership transition and succession in family and small firms and will include several area business speakers as well as a lead speaker, Nelson Clyde, President of T.B. Butler Publishing Co., Inc., and Publisher of the Tyler Morning Telegraph and Tylerpaper.com.

Clyde, a graduate of Robert E. Lee High School and Tyler Junior College, received a B.S. degree from The University of Texas at Tyler in 1987. In 1989, Clyde joined his family's business as a fifth generation participant in the company. The company has been under continuous family ownership and management for 103 years.

Clyde has also served on numerous community boards in various capacities and was co-recipient of the 1999 W.C. Windsor award. He was selected Citizen of the Year by the Sigma Sigma chapter of Omega Psi Phi fraternity at Texas College in 2000 and was named a 2008 Distinguished Alumnus at The University of Texas at Tyler. In March of 2010 he was awarded the Pat Taggart award by the Texas Daily Newspaper Association.

Clyde is a Past President of the Texas Daily Newspaper Association and is a member of the Board of Directors of Citizen's 1st Bank, T.B. Butler Publishing Co. and is Chairman of the Board of Advisors for the University of North Texas Mayborn School of Journalism. His passions include his faith, family, community, and education as they all contribute to making a difference.

Clyde and his wife, Elizabeth, have four children, Sarah, Cal, Rachel and Jamie. He and his family are members of Green Acres Baptist Church.

Join us for the 2013 Family and Small Business Forum this July and be sure to ask about the Center's services for family and small businesses. The Center for Family & Small Enterprises— supporting and encouraging success in East Texas.
