Text: The lab manual is provided through the Canvas website for the course.

Required Equipment:

- 1) A bound notebook with index and carbonless copies
- 2) A scientific calculator
- 3) 12 inch ruler with metric scale
- 4) Close toed shoes
- 5) Safety goggles

Course Resources: Additional materials will be provided as either handouts or through the course Canvas site.

Course Content:

The course is designed to give students hands on experience in modern experimental biochemistry. Students will learn proper techniques in pipetting, buffer preparation, spectroscopy, protein and enzyme purification, gel electrophoresis, column chromatography, immunoblotting, enzyme kinetics, protein crystallization, and protein molecular modeling.

Course Learning Objectives:

1. Provide thorough understanding of fundamental techniques in modern experimental protein biochemistry
2. Develop problem solving skills in experimental biochemistry
3. Encourage both collaborative and independent experimentation by students
4. Provide a learning environment where students are free to inquire and explore to gain a better understanding of the techniques and underlying principles

COVID-19 Social Distancing and Personal Protection:

The health and well-being of our students is of the utmost importance and the course will employ social distancing strategies to combat the COVID-19 pandemic we currently face. Student's must wear face coverings/masks while in the laboratory at all times and safety goggles as well. Guidelines for social distancing in the lab will be elaborated on by the faculty member in charge, including seating/desk space arrangements for students, flow paths within the lab, and ways of limiting contact while performing collaborative experiments. Please follow all guidelines set by The University of Texas and Tyler and the instructors of the Biochemistry Laboratory Course.

Grade Distribution:

The grades will be calculated according to the following scheme:

Pre-Lab Assignments	10%
Communication Lab Reports	60%
Comprehensive Lab Report	30%

Final grades will be determined on a standard grading scale of A 90-100%, B 80-89%, C 70-79%, etc. Incentive points may be added, based on initiative, class participation, and improvement in the course.

Lab Reports:

Two types of lab reports will be due during the semester, 1) communications and 2) comprehensive reports. The differences are explained as follows:

- 1) Communications summarize the results for a single lab or short sequence of experiments and are limited to a maximum of 3 pages, not including references and attached notebook pages. Each communication is worth 10% of your final grade.
- 2) Comprehensive reports encompass the findings from an entire series of experiments and are limited to a maximum of 5 pages, not including any references and attached notebook pages. Each comprehensive article is worth 15% of your final grade.

Lab reports should provide a clear, well thought out presentation of the data in its final, processed form (see lab report example). There will be 6 regular lab reports and 2 comprehensive lab report due and they are as follows:

Communications-	Due Date
Exp. 1 Quantitative Pipetting	09/01/21
Exp. 2 Theory and Measurement of pH and pKa	09/15/21
Exp. 4 Introduction to Spectroscopy	09/29/21
Exp. 5 a-b Protein Purification and Quantitation of CelB-GFP	10/06/21
Exp. 5c and 5d SDS-PAGE and Western Blotting of CelB-GFP	10/20/21

Comprehensive Reports-

Exp. 5 Comprehensive CelB-GFP Purification and Characterization	11/17/21
Exp. 6 Comprehensive LDH Purification and Characterization	12/08/21

Comprehensive reports will be a compilation of all results from an experimental series into a single, cohesive lab report.

Lab reports must be turned in by the end (11:59 pm) of the due date by online submission via the submission folder on the Canvas webpage for the course. Lab reports that are submitted late will receive the following deductions from the total possible points:

Late 1 day: 10% points deduction

Late 2 days: 30% points deduction

Late 3 days: 50% points deduction

Late 4 days: 70% points deduction

Late 5 days: No credit

All lab reports must be submitted electronically to the course Canvas site.

Pre-lab Assignments. Pre-lab questions will be posted as handouts to Canvas the week before the experiment is to be carried out. The Pre-lab will require calculations and answers to questions that will prepare students for the upcoming laboratory session.

Attendance and make-up policy:

Course attendance is required. Students who do not attend will not be able to carry out experiments and obtain data for their lab reports, which is required to receive full credit. The instructor should be notified of any expected absences according to the University of Texas at Tyler guidelines and may be excused for reasons allowed by the university (see statements below). Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar. Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a “W” grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date). Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
