Hunger for Peace Visual Art Exhibition
Presented by: The 2014 Art of Peace Festival Tyler

September 15 – 21
Tyler Museum of Art – Tyler Texas

The Art of Peace Festival Tyler is a week-long celebration of art-based events that promote Creativity, Compassion, and Community. This event supports the national United Nations International Day of Peace.

This week-long peace event included live music, film, poetry, peace vigil, a peace-themed art exhibit and a lot more.

Submitting to the Call-For-Entries, my work artwork was accepted. The theme of the show was “Hunger for Peace.”

The inspiration for my work was envisioning the state of hunger as being in a dry and barren desert. As the rain of peace falls on the desert hope is renewed and life is preserved and nurtured.

In addition to being accepted into the show, the Tyler Museum of Art used my entry to promote the Art of Peace Festival Tyler exhibit. They used my art on direct mail pieces and a poster.

Designer:
Vanessa Joyner
Sr. Lecturer, Mass Communication
Department of Communication
vjoyner@uttyler.edu
903-566-7301

Art of Peace – Tyler, Texas website:
http://www.tylerpeace.com/