Course Requirements

A. Required Readings:

1. Wilcox, Cameron, Reber, & Shin (2013), Think Public Relations, ISBN: 9780205857258
2. Additional readings assigned in class

Assignment Policy

1. Assignments do have deadlines and these deadlines need to be met. You will need to submit each assignment via Canvas before the due time.
2. Assignments and due dates may be changed at the instructor's discretion with fair notice to students.
3. No make-up tests or quizzes will be allowed after tests close on Canvas.
4. Students must complete all assignments to pass the course. This does not mean that merely completing all assignments guarantees the student will pass the course.
5. Spelling, grammar, and neatness count.
6. For many assignments, not all, the submission folder will stay open for a week after the due date. Any assignments turned in after the due date will receive a 5 point per day deduction.

Expectations: We all approach courses with certain expectations. I expect you to:

1. Work hard – learning requires constant reading, researching, thinking, discussing, and working with your classmates and me. Everyone has something important to contribute. My job is to present new information and prepare a climate in which you can contribute your own special knowledge. Your job is to be prepared to contribute.
2. Participate – you must be an active part of the course to succeed. You will also have to give effort outside of class.
3. Display Classroom Courtesies
4. Talk, debate, ask questions, and challenge yourselves and each other, but stay on topic.
5. Limit use of cellphones, tablets, or other device use during class. I understand emergencies and the need to take a call or text. If this must happen, be discreet, don't disturb others, do not let it get in the way of your learning, and DO NOT abuse this.
6. I use Canvas and email to communicate, post assignments and readings, present feedback and provide a space for you to communicate with your classmates. I expect you to check both daily and stay aware of what is coming up.

7. Communicate - If you have a problem with anything throughout the semester... getting an assignment in on time, needing to be absent from a class, getting your book, checking out equipment, or anything I'm doing as a professor... talk to me about it.
8. Hold me to the same standards and expectations that I hold you to.

Attendance and Tardiness Policy: Critique and lectures are a vital part to the learning process in this course, therefore students are expected to attend class. If you do not attend class, you cannot participate in group discussions and critiques. Overall, 10% of your final grade comes from participation. Participation grades will be calculated based on the number of days you have been in attendance. Students are allowed 3 absences without a deduction in their participation grade - these days include illness, extracurricular related activities, and so forth. After the 3rd absence is met, student's participation grades, which start at a 100, will be lowered by 5 points by every day that is missed. See the current UT Tyler catalog for the university's policy on student responsibility for missed classes and assignments. Be familiar with the university's drop policy. Students who anticipate being absent from class due to religious observance or university-sponsored activities should inform the instructor by the second course meeting.

Students more than 15 minutes late may be considered absent. If a student must be absent the day an exam/presentation is scheduled, he/she must notify the instructor before class time. No make-ups will be allowed if the instructor is not given a legitimate excuse before the time of the exam or presentation.

Academic Honesty Policy: Students will adhere to the highest standards of academic honesty. Anyone caught cheating will earn a "0" for that assignment and will be subject to academic and disciplinary action. Plagiarism (the use of written and oral words or ideas of another person, including another student, without the expressed acknowledgment of the speaker's or writer's indebtedness to that person) will not be tolerated. This includes the use of papers or other materials previously submitted to instructors in other classes, as well as video and audio recordings. Students caught plagiarizing will fail this class and be subject to academic and disciplinary action. PLAIGIARISM WILL NOT BE TOLERATED.

Course Withdrawal: The last date to withdraw from classes without penalty is November 5, 2018.

Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.
