Course Description: Practice in and discussion of the factors influencing message creation and construction, the role of research and evidence in public discourse, adaptation to the communication situation and audience, ethical issues in public communication, argumentation and persuasion, delivery, and emphasis upon creation assignments which help students reduce excessive communication apprehension.

Required texts:

Lucas, S. (2015). The Art of Public Speaking (12th Ed.). New York: McGraw Hill. ISBN: 9781308391694

Kidd, M.A. (2014). Form & Substance: A Speech Communication Workbook. Fountainhead Press. ISBN: 978-1-59871-688-7

I understand that there is often a delay when receiving books by mail; however, this is no excuse for not reading the material or completing the assignments! You must obtain the required readings from another student until your texts come in. Bring both texts to class every day!

Student Learning Outcomes:

1. Understand, analyze, and practice effective and ethical oral communication in forms and styles appropriate for various situations, purposes, and audiences.
2. Display personal responsibility through teamwork participation.
3. Strengthen critical thinking skills through developing and presenting strong public presentations.

Course Policies:

1. Cell phones should be silent. Violation of this policy will result in a grading penalty.
2. No social media. Use of computers for any purpose other than taking notes will be grounds for marking you absent for the class. I will not consider you physically here unless you are mentally “here”!
3. Attendance is mandatory.
 - Any absence must be preapproved or have a valid DOCUMENTED reason for the absence.

- Valid reasons for absence may include personal illness (to be documented with a note from a physician or health care facility), car trouble (to be documented with a receipt from a tow truck or mechanic), etc.
 - Valid reasons will NOT include oversleeping, failure to have assignments completed, or attendance at other University events (unless preapproved).
 - All athletes must submit the dates of absence for events at the beginning of the semester.
 - Please arrange to coordinate with another student to obtain lecture notes and assignments – I will NOT go over these individually! I make an effort to be in class, prepared, every day and I expect the same of you.
 - Unexcused absence penalties:
 - Speech day on which YOU are supposed to speak: zero for the speech.
 - Speech day on which you are NOT speaking: minus a letter grade from your speech grade.
 - Any assignments due on a day with a preapproved absence must be submitted PRIOR to the absence.
4. Tardiness: Tardiness is rude and disrespectful of other students' time, so please plan ahead for parking or other issues. NEVER enter the classroom if a student is giving a speech! Chronic tardiness will result in me marking you absent for a class.
5. Assignments: All assignments (including documents submitted as part of a speech) should be in 12-pt type (NOT handwritten!) with your name, section number, and date on the upper right-hand corner of the page. Failure to submit an assignment in this format will result in an immediate 50% grade penalty.
6. Academic Honesty: Any form of plagiarism, whether intentional or not, will be punished according to the University's guidelines. Included in this category are efforts to cheat, thwart, or otherwise undermine assignments in the class with unethical behavior including, but not limited to, buying papers online or from other students, using someone else's work as your own, the use of electronic devices to store test information or to look up answers to questions, other modes of data storage for the purpose of assistance on exams or quizzes. AVOID ANY APPEARANCE OF CHEATING!

SPEECH REQUIREMENTS:

- You will construct and deliver a total of 4 significant speeches (there may be other, less significant speeches that will count towards your participation grade):
 - 2 informative speeches (includes 1 panel/group speech)
 - 2 persuasive speeches
- You will have only two speech topics for the semester: one that you will choose for your individual speeches and one that you will choose with your group for your panel presentation.
- The first speech will be an informative speech on your chosen topic. The second speech will be a group panel speech. The third speech will be a persuasive speech on the “pro” side of your chosen topic, and the fourth speech will be a persuasive speech on the “con” side of this topic.

Speech dates and group assignments: Given on/around the second day of classes. You are responsible for delivering your speech on the day(s) assigned to you. Students who are not able to deliver speeches on their assigned day(s) and provide a valid, preapproved excuse prior to the speech day will have the opportunity to give the speech on a different date. It is my discretion as to what constitutes a valid excuse. Students who miss their assigned speech day or time under any other scenario will receive an automatic ZERO.

NOTE: It is not always possible for all the scheduled speeches to be presented on the assigned day. In this case, BE PREPARED TO SPEAK THE FOLLOWING CLASS PERIOD IF NECESSARY.

Required attire for your speeches: You will be required to present your speeches in business-casual clothing. This will include khakis and polo or button-down shirts for men, and skirts or pants for women. NOT allowed are jeans, shorts, miniskirts, flip flops, baseball caps, or anything that could be worn to the beach! Failure to adhere to this required attire will result in a full letter grade penalty for your speech. (NOTE: There is absolutely no chewing gum or eating or drinking during your speeches! The same penalty will apply!)

ASSIGNMENTS:

- Late assignments will not be accepted. Assignments are due at the beginning of the class period on the date specified. Failure to submit an assignment at this time in the required format will result in a ZERO.
- APA format: You will complete all assignments (including all documents required for the speech) in APA format. This applies specifically to the required bibliographies!
 - Refer to Chapter 11 in Form and Substance Workbook and Purdue OWL for APA guidelines: <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/>

EXAMS:

- You will take a mid-term exam and a final exam.
- These will be take-home, open-book exams.
- Your exam will be available on Blackboard at the end of the designated class period, and the exam will be due by 5:00 on the designated day (typically 2-3 days after it is assigned).
- All exams must be saved as a Microsoft Word document.
- You will attach it as an email to me by the due date and time.
- LATE EXAMS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED AND WILL BE GIVEN A ZERO.

QUIZZES:

Quizzes from the chapter readings and/or lecture could be given at any time during the semester.

PARTICIPATION:

Active, positive participation is important in a speech class. Participation is measured, in large part, through your attendance. Participation is also measured by the degree of attentiveness you give to your classmates' speeches. Finally, participation is measured by your consistent attempt at contributing meaningfully to class discussions. In cases where the achievement of a letter grade is in the balance (within .1 to .5), this latter measure of participation WILL MAKE THE DIFFERENCE. This is not an “automatic” 50 points! A rough guide as to how I calculate your participation is as follows:

- 0 pts - Often absent and never spoke up
- 10 pts - Often absent and rarely spoke up
- 20 pts - Some absences and occasionally spoke up
- 30 pts - Some absences and frequently spoke up
- 40 pts - Never absent and frequently spoke up
- 50 pts - Never absent, frequently spoke up, and contributed meaningfully to class discussions

GRADES:

Final grades are awarded as follows:

- A = 90 - 100%
- B = 80 - 89.99%
- C = 70 - 79.99%
- D = 60 - 69.99%
- F = below 60%

Students Rights and Responsibilities

To know and understand the policies that affect your rights and responsibilities as a student at UT Tyler, please follow this link: <http://www.uttyler.edu/wellness/rightsresponsibilities.php>

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions that students need to be aware of. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit;
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals (there is no refund for these after the Census Date);
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a “W” grade);
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment; and
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid.

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

Disability Services

In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodation must provide documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services counselor. If you have a disability, including a learning disability, for which you request an accommodation, please contact the Disability Services office in UC 3150, or call (903) 566-7079.

Student Absence due to Religious Observance

Students who anticipate being absent from class due to a religious observance are requested to inform the instructor of such absences by the second class meeting of the semester.

Student Absence for University-Sponsored Events and Activities

If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, you (or the event sponsor) must notify the instructor at least two weeks prior to the date of the planned absence. At that time the instructor will set a date and time when make-up assignments will be completed.

Social Security and FERPA Statement:

It is the policy of The University of Texas at Tyler to protect the confidential nature of social security numbers. The University has changed its computer programming so that all students have an identification number. The electronic transmission of grades (e.g., via e-mail) risks violation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act; grades will not be transmitted electronically.

Emergency Exits and Evacuation:

Everyone is required to exit the building when a fire alarm goes off. Follow your instructor's directions regarding the appropriate exit. If you require assistance during an evacuation, inform your instructor in the first week of class. Do not reenter the building unless given permission by University Police, Fire department, or Fire Prevention Services.
