Focus on content literacy at the middle and secondary levels, includes particular emphasis on teaching and learning strategies that develop and refine students' literacy skills. Prerequisites: Admission to the School of Education.

C. Knowledge Base(s)
This undergraduate course builds upon the knowledge base and experiences gained in prior undergraduate coursework, field, and actual classroom experiences that address language and literacy issues. The course addresses disciplinary literacy and how, as teachers, we communicate the literacy practices of our disciplines effectively and in ways that build bridges for students to grasp, understand and apply concepts. Both disciplinary literacy and strategy awareness in reading and writing will be emphasized leading to enabling an upper-elementary, middle and/or high school teacher to better develop an effective program of instruction for all students.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

AND if you are not sure what to do…

I will explain assignments both in-person and online; and, I will distribute detailed instructions for each assignment. In most cases, I will provide you with several examples of completed assignments. If an assignment is unclear, confusing, or in any way frustrating -- or you have questions -- discuss the problem with me. I welcome clarifying questions: you do the whole classroom community a service by raising them. Often, I will share the answers to such questions with the classroom community – without attributing a student name to the question. However, not all questions can be resolved in this way. Please note that I have office hours set aside for just such occasions. If my office hours do not work for you, we can make an appointment for a mutually convenient time.

SOCIAL MEDIA(TED) PROFESSIONAL LEARNING COMMUNITIES – EXPANDING YOUR WORLDS (20 points 20/20=100%)

Across five weeks, we will look beyond UT-Tyler and our field-placement schools for professional affiliation, inspiration, and support. Using Twitter meet ups, you will participate in meet-ups, read relevant posts by other experts in your field, contribute to those discussions, and methodically collect ideas, strategies, and resources for your own use in your teaching career. Specific instructions and schedule to follow.

THINK-ALOUD(s) (15 points) Specific instructions and schedule to follow.

Think-Aloud Protocols are an excellent way a teacher can make his or her specialized disciplinary knowledge visible to students. This is an oft-overlooked, critically important step in “explicit” or “direct” instruction. Students in K12 needs to be able to see HOW we (as disciplinary experts) think about solving problems in our areas, then (and often, ONLY then), can they solve them on their own. You will select a discipline-specific task and then “perform” the Think-Aloud. As if you were by yourself, and, as if the audience had a front row seat inside your head, you will talk through all of your thinking about the task you are accomplishing. You will confine your pronoun use to “I”, “me”, “my” – first person only – no
“you” usage, direct or implied. Seven to ten minutes of thinking aloud. Peer comments to follow. You will have specific guidance and examples. We will engage with Think-Alouds four times in the first half of the semester during face-to-face class meetings. You will be in small groups. For Think-Alouds #1 and #3, you will come up with a concept and plan for your presentation; for Think Alouds #2 and #4 you will offer a refined and improved version of the earlier Think-Aloud, based on feedback. As a team member, your collegial, thoughtful, encouraging, and honest feedback is critical to your peers’ growth and will count toward your grade.

FACE-TO-FACE and ONLINE ACTIVITIES (15 points 15/15=100%)

- Discussions Face to face, AND digitally mediated discussions.
- Classroom activities: Examples might include Meet & Greet at start of semester; a teacher assessment practice session of student writing; various in-class activities, etc.
  - Grading: Grading will vary from week to week and from one activity to another. Your attendance and participation are expected.

Etiquette for Discussions:

Face to Face: A pedagogical stance that values dialogue, will propel a teacher (you) to find meaningful ways to incorporate talk into his/her class. By talk, I do not mean fill-in-the-blank kinds of responses but more open ended connections, queries, and extensions. By dialogic, I mean that a discussion is not one that the teacher strictly controls. Instead, the teacher can initiate a topic, then responses should be from and between students (two to four “pongs” between students before moving on). It is this student voice factor that is critical. To this end, we will hold weekly discussions. You will be required to bring in talking points from the week’s readings to participate fully in this construction of meaning.

Online: In general, it is imperative that any online discussion maintain a polite and collegial tone. Moreover, it is important that each person express him/herself fully and with supporting detail. Generally, each post should be between 150 and 250 words of well-developed and coherent connection to and thinking about a given topic. In your replies to other students, we should strive to maintain a positive and appreciative tone.

What if I don’t agree? If you do not agree with someone – then own it (by using “I”-statements) – rather than saying, “that’s ridiculous!” try something more like, “I appreciate that you were in a very challenging situation”. Or, “Could you say a little more about how part “a” connects to part “b”?”, or, “That’s an interesting perspective. In my experience – I saw it a little differently” (then, explain). As professional educators, being able to disagree and maintain a positive relationship is a valuable skill.

WEEKLY JOTTINGS: CHAPTERS; WEBSITES; VIDEOS; ARTICLES; VOCABULARY; ACTIVITIES (25 points 25/25=100%)

By necessity, doing the weekly readings (both textbook and articles), watching videos, exploring linked websites will provide you with valuable content that can significantly ramp up your teaching. As well, you will explore vocabulary root words (in your discipline) as a way to help students better retain your technical vocabulary and so that they can transfer that knowledge into and out of your content area. And, you will collect and tweak a teaching and learning activity, each week, in order to build your teacher toolkit.
Prior to each class, you will:

1. Complete all the readings,
2. View the video(s),
3. Visit the website(s)
4. Do end-of-chapter activities
5. Do vocabulary exercises (Joshi book – separate directions below)
6. Summarize, Connect, Question.
7. Find, tweak, and customize a teaching/learning activity from that week’s readings and include in your document.

Doing these assignments - both the reading and the writing that accompanies each -- will help you collect ideas and resources, and, build your teaching practice. Intentional collection is an essential part of a reflective and productive teaching practice. Doing the readings and the writing will also prepare you to engage deeply in class discussions whether face to face or online. Closely follow detailed instructions for each week – separate directions and schedule.

TURNING IT IN: Each week for eleven weeks – in Weeks 2-13, prior to the start of class for F2F classes OR by 11:59pm if class is online, you will upload your writings into a turn-in folder on Canvas. For F2F classes, you should also plan to have it with you either electronically or printed, to facilitate your discussion. Similarly, for occasional online discussions, you will need to have these notes prepared ahead of time to facilitate your discussion.

GRADING: Each week’s full jottings: Wolsey & Lapp textbook summary and end-of chapter activities; Professional articles; Websites; Videos; & vocabulary is worth 2.27 points. 2.27 (points) X 11 weeks = 25 points (25/25=100%).

TEXT SET (20 points 20/20=100%) Specific directions to follow.

[A] The Text Set is due (as one PDF document) (15 points)
[B] Sharing/Discussion of Text Sets online (5 points):
   Part #1 Presenting (2.5 points)
   Part #2 Responding to others’ presentations (2.5 points)

[A] The Text Set, itself: In order to help adolescent students to develop areas of interest/motivation/engagement in your discipline (e.g. care about what they are being taught), you will assemble a “Text Set” that you could use in your classroom, or, that you could share with a teacher whom you are coaching. You will get specific instructions.

Around a theme or topic you will

- select several short, high interest, reader-friendly, authentic texts/excerpts and develop a multi-day, in-class engagement using your Text Set. The texts you select should be highly interesting to adolescent students.
- include literacy tools and strategies that you discover through the course readings, videos, and your own research.
Then, [B] Sharing and Discussion of Text Sets (online)

- Part #1 PRESENTATION: Using at least 10 slides but no more than 15, walk us through your text set – what it is; why it’s important to what students; your texts; and a close-up of at least one day’s worth of instruction. What are the texts for that day and how are students interacting with them, and each other?
- Part #2: COMMENT: Then, using a Notice/Appreciate/Extend protocol, you will comment collegially on each class member’s presentation. Visit the posts of at least two classmates and leave an appreciative comment for him/her.

FINAL EXAM (5 points)
Format TBD

COURSE POLICIES

Everything Canvas: http://www.uttyle.edu/canvas/

TECHNOLOGY: Internet; email; Canvas

Technology will serve as a tool for communication. Important announcements and readings will be posted on Canvas. UT-Tyler email and emails generated through Canvas will be utilized as a communication tool, as well. This course uses a hybrid format with both face-to-face meetings and other classes held entirely online – it is up to you to have reliable and continuous access to high speed internet. This class is formatted for computer use – that is, laptop or desktop.

- It is expected that you will check your UT-Tyler email daily, and Canvas regularly for information and announcements.
- It is expected that everyone will have and use his/her email account associated with UT-Tyler and keep their information current with the university.
- It is your responsibility to find and maintain a stable internet connection. I suggest you locate two or three back up Wi-Fi friendly sites (e.g. Starbucks, your local public library; a friend or family member’s home) in the event that your home internet service fails.

Technology Troubles?
Start here: http://www.uttyle.edu/canvas/

For any difficulties associated with technology, you may contact IT Support on their 24/7 student webpage, http://www.uttyle.edu/it/support/student-support.php
Or by phone, 800-UT TYLER or 903-565-5555 or, by email itsupport@uttyler.edu

Computer Literacy Requirement

You are expected to use word processing for all assignments (unless otherwise instructed); that is, a document submitted in Plain Text is not acceptable, while Times New Roman in MS Word, is acceptable. All assignments (unless instructed otherwise) must be typed, doubled-spaced and formatted in APA style.
When you post something to a Discussion Forum, copy and paste your text into the message pane; do not attach a document unless the assignment specifically instructs you to do so. Do not expect myself or classmates to have to open your documents to read your post or your response. We won’t. You’ll lose points.

PDF is the most stable of the formatting options; however, MS Word will work for uploading some assignments.

Internet research: Throughout this course, you will be expected to use the Internet as a source of research, as well as that of library sources. Online discussions (Discussion, wikis), as well as Power Point (Prezi; Keynote) presentations may also be a feature of this class.

UT-Tyler Online Library: As a student at The University of Texas at Tyler, you are paying for and have access to a robust and networked university library and professional librarians whose job it is to help you. You are expected to use the library, and to ask for help when you need it. http://library.uttyler.edu This link is the homepage of the UTT library, visit it and note the CHAT feature. This can be a lifesaver!!!! Check out this help page too http://library.uttyler.edu/help

Clear identification of work: Name, Date, Topic
All work must be neat, paginated, and properly identified with your name and page number on subsequent pages. All files and posts must be labeled logically and informatively (e.g. Consalvo_Text Set; or Consalvo_Short Bio_meet & greet; or, Consalvo_Final Learning Portfolio_date). At the top of your submitted work, you must have your first and last name, name of assignment, date due, date completed (if applicable). I will not spend my time figuring out (for example) what chapter questions you have turned in if it is not clearly stated in your heading. You will get a zero.

Plan for Printing and Scanning
You may discover that you need to work both on- and off-line. Some readings and some writing tasks are simply better learning experiences done using paper and pencil. To that end, it is important that you establish immediately regular and reliable access to printing and scanning services whether you own your own printer, or that you locate two or three printers on campus and understand how they work, how to pay for copies, etc. Or, you may need to find out where the nearest copy shop is to you and set aside money for that. Access to a scanner can be a lifesaver – as some assignments may require you to hand draw or write, and to scan in those documents as a required part of the assignment as a whole.

Neatness and professionalism in submitted work:
I will not accept bits and pieces of assignments, rather, it is up to you to compile your projects and submit each as a single and continuous pdf. To do this you may have to
1) format each individual page; 2) print it out; and/or 3) scan it in to make a single pdf out of the whole document. This is where access to a print shop, like Staples; Kinkos, or Office Max can be a life-saver. If you, for example, submit an article in your Text Set, be sure to format it neatly and remove any ads or extraneous verbage or pages. The design of your work is an important factor in its readability.

APA Citation help:
Correct attribution of work that someone else did is expected of an educated person.
In this class, as educators, you will adhere to the accepted “style” called APA – for the American Psychological Association.

The OWL at Purdue: The Online Writing Lab at Purdue University AKA The OWL at Purdue is a powerhouse of accessible, understandable, correct, and relevant resources for you; use it!

Timeliness and Participation: REALLY IMPORTANT!

Since this class meets BOTH in-person AND online, you are expected to keep up with assignments (readings, discussions, etc.), and to complete and turn them in according to timeline in the syllabus’s Activities Schedule and/or by the timeline on any given assignment’s handout. To not do so WILL affect your grade. Assignments are due on the day and by the time on which they appear in the syllabus’s Activities Schedule.

As a professional preparation class, your full engagement in every session is critical for ongoing building of your knowledge and your professional dispositions. As such, you are expected to complete all assignments to the best of your ability and according to the timelines established. Moreover, you are to communicate with the instructor regarding any extenuating circumstances that may arise, in advance. Your timeliness and participation are factored into my assessment of your readiness and suitability for the being a teacher and are factored into your grades.

Students who must miss a number of classes due to extenuating circumstances should contact the Dean’s Office.

Students are responsible for all work despite any missed modules/classes.

Absences and Tardies

Since this is a professional preparation class, any missed class time is serious. Absences and tardiness will result in a permanent grade change. If you have to miss class, you should not miss more than ONE class. I will not check medical notes, funeral documentation, etc. You have one absence – excused or unexcused (emailing me to explain why you are gone does not negate the absence) – to use as you see fit. Suggestion: “spend” it wisely (my suggestion is to save it for a true emergency). When a student has TWO absences, she will receive a two-point deduction, from the final course grade, for each absence. If you miss more than four classes, you will be asked to withdraw from the class.

Two tardies (late arrivals or early departures) will count as one absence. If you are absent when your group is presenting, you will receive a 0 for the presentation part of the session, regardless of reason for absence. Students who must miss a number of classes or who have a conflict with the final exam due to extenuating circumstances should contact the Dean’s Office. Arriving late or leaving early (also a “Tardy”) distracts the class from the work of the day. Consistent tardies will impact your grade. Participation in class discussions and cooperative groups is expected.

All students are responsible for meeting required deadlines on projects and assignments; your ability to complete tasks in a timely fashion demonstrates professional maturity and an ability to organize and manage time.

Completion of assigned reading is imperative to your individual development as a professional as is coming to class prepared to engage in substantive discussion over the assigned readings.

All of these behaviors regarding attendance, preparation, and meeting deadlines are critical for successful teaching and thus are factored into the final grade.

Late/Incomplete Work

Unless otherwise stated, all work will be completed and turned in on the day, and by the time it is due. Late assignments without prior, written permission from the instructor or without the presence of documentable (by you), extenuating circumstances will result in a significant lowering of the assignment grade. If you have gotten written instructor permission, print out the email and attach to your work. I am not responsible for keeping track of such matters. It falls on you to present your documentation in a professional manner.

Ten Suggestions for Success in Course

1. Do all of the readings – Not completing the readings is always very tempting. However, you will find it much more challenging to participate in discussion, or write convincing rationales, and your learning will be impacted. You don’t know what you don’t know.
2. Do your homework for each class; including participating in online discussions and other discussions if they are part of a day’s assignments.
3. Keep your materials organized. Visit and re-visit your files, folders, binders, cases. All course materials require tending and reorganizing across a semester - -whether online or in a face to face environment.
4. Print out and read and re-read the syllabus. Print out and read and re-read assignment instruction handouts. Check items off as they are completed.
5. Make connections between readings; learn to think about ways strategies CAN be tweaked to serve YOUR students.
6. Some of the best insights for understanding texts and deciding on topics for essays comes from sounding ideas off of other people; use the discussion settings as opportunities to do this. Also, the class will be more interesting for everyone if there is lively discussion.
7. The importance of working on early drafts and soliciting feedback cannot be stressed enough. Turning in papers that have not been reread, revised, and proofread will result in a lower grade. Most importantly, you will produce better work if you give yourself time to think through various concepts.
8. Plan ahead.
9. Outside reading – It is perfectly appropriate and is encouraged for students to do readings and research outside of what is assigned; this will help to generate more discussion in class and will make writing easier.
10. Talk to me – If there is a problem or a question, please talk to me either before or after class, in my office, or by email.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies
Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. (For Spring, the Census Date is January 29.) Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar. Each semester’s Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date (January 29) is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:
