COURSE EVALUATION AND REQUIREMENT DESCRIPTION

Performance Assessments

The assignments and projects outlined below are designed to contribute in a different, and yet complementary way in achieving the stated course objectives.

1. E-Learning, Readings, Discussions (30 points or 30% of course grade). As graduate students it is critical that you read deeply and engage in a productive and collegial manner with your professional community (us) in order to grow. Through weekly assigned opportunities for asynchronous discussions over readings and/or videos, podcasts, and the like, you will practice giving and receiving responses to your ideas and connections with material and to those of fellow classmates. For this, we will use the course’s Canvas Discussion Forum feature for whole class discussions.

Engage deeply with class texts; respond actively, substantively and thoughtfully, tactfully, and in a timely manner with classmates to books, articles, videos and more that are assigned within our classroom community. Because this is a graduate level course, expectations are high for active engagement and substantive contributions to class activities—with timely completion of readings and related activities—and critical to the teaching-learning process. Active engagement entails making sustained and substantive contributions by completing assigned readings on time, asking critical questions (of the readings, of yourself, of colleagues), collaborating with others asynchronously, and exploring implications and applications of knowledge gained for your own professional work.

When responding to assigned readings or activities via discussion forums, I suggest using the following questions as a general guide for organizing your responses:

- What are the main point(s) made or issue(s) raised in the assigned readings?
- What are some of your own connections to the readings via your life experiences, your observations, your readings or viewings of other text/film/media?
- What are the strengths and weaknesses (or limitations) of the main points outlined, arguments made, or solutions provided?
• In what ways will the knowledge gained from the assigned reading(s) or activities help you enhance your role and/or work as a classroom teacher, reading specialist, or literacy coach?
• What are you thinking about differently as a result of this/these reading(s)? What questions does it raise for you?

2. Individual Choice Book (20 points or 20% of course grade). From a list of books provided to you for this purpose, you will select one and read it. As the topics of new literacies and digital media are wide and because you each have divergent interests in it, we will each read a book-length work. The authors of these books go into sufficient depth, unattainable in an article that can help you turn up the heat under some aspect integration of new literacies and/or digital media/technology into your practice.

- Week 3: You will select your book and send me a note to identify your book choice.
- Week 5: You will have your book and begin to read it.
- Week 6: (5 points) You will join a whole class discussion forum in Canvas and do an initial update on your book. This way we can learn more about all the other titles we did not select, and we can discover who else among us, if anyone, is also reading the same book. This discussion post will include:
  - Tell us: Title, author, year, chapter titles.
  - Tell us: What the book is ABOUT in an overview sense. (Aim for about 100-200 words in this discussion post.)
  - Comment: Get around to at least two other people and leave a very short, collegial note for them (10-50 words).
- Week 8: (5 points) You will again join a whole class discussion forum in Canvas and do another update on your book. In this update you will:
  - Tell us: Title, author, year, chapter titles.
  - Tell us: Let us know what’s going on in the book, what it’s suggesting to you and what you are thinking about as a result of reading.
  - Tell us: Make connections with your text: Text to self; Text to text; Text to world. What are you thinking about regarding your practice? (Aim for about 100-200 words in this discussion post.)
  - Comment: Get around to at least two other people and leave a very short, collegial note for them (10-50 words).
- Week 10: (10 points) You will again join a whole class discussion forum in Canvas. By this time, you will have finished your book. In this week’s post, address each of the following four questions that tie back in with the course’s learning objectives. (Aim for about 100 words PER QUESTION or 500-600 words overall.)
  - How has this book contributed to your understanding of language acquisition and literacy development?
  - How has this book contributed to your understanding of historical and current research, policy, and practice related to new and emerging media literacies and literacy development?
  - How has this book contributed to your ability to critically examine ways in which you can integrate new literacies across the curriculum with the goal of enhancing students’ learning and engagement?
How has this book contributed to your ability to explore and work on solutions to critical issues pertaining to the integration of new literacies across the K-12 school curriculum?

How has this book contributed to your ability to make changes to your own thinking and practice as an educator? Be specific.

Comment: Get around to at least two other people and leave a very short, collegial note for them (10-50 words).

3. Integrating New Media Literacies in Instruction Project (40 points or 40% of course grade).

In this assignment, you will have an opportunity to apply what you have learned about new and emerging media literacies by developing a sample weeklong unit of study (assume about 1 hour of class per day for five days) in a language arts or a content area classroom of your choice. An example might be a unit of study focused on teaching middle level students the skills necessary, in addition to foundational literacy skills, when the goal is to understand and communicate new information on the Internet. Another example might be a unit of study aimed at using i-Pads to promote and support foundational literacy skills (e.g., phonemic awareness) among first grade students experiencing reading difficulties.

Your unit of study should be informed by relevant theories, research, and practice with respect to the integration of new and emerging media literacies across the school curriculum. In developing the unit of study, you should provide:

- a rationale for developing the unit for the target group of students in your selected classroom,
- a list of student learning outcomes tied to the appropriate language arts or content area standards,
- the overall plan for implementing the unit of study,
- the new media literacies tools and/or materials used in the unit of study,
- the instructional strategies used, and
• the evaluation plan for assessing the learning outcomes have been achieved.

You will have an opportunity to present your proposed unit of study by using one or more media technology tools of your choice (e.g., Podcast, narrated PPT or Prezi presentation, Voice Thread, other). The proposed unit of study will be evaluated on the extent to which you have effectively integrated new media literacies tools and practices to promote and/or strengthen students’ literacy development and/or content learning. More details about the specific requirements for this assignment will be provided at the appropriate time in the semester.

4. Final Exam (5 points or 5% of course grade). There will be a final exam that will cover material addressed in course notes, videos, and assigned readings. The content of the final exam, which will consist a constructed response answer, is designed to probe your level of preparedness in understanding and using information communication technologies to promote and support literacy assessment and instruction in your classroom settings.

5. Program Portfolio Artifact (QEP) (5 points)

   Description: This assignment is designed to assure that you successfully and competently build your Program Portfolio the goal of which is to show ways in which your work in this program has enabled you to provide evidence, aligned with state and national standards, of your preparation to become a literacy leader. As you already know, the successful completion and presentation of your portfolio is a requirement for graduation from this program. Creating your portfolio will be an incremental process spanning the entirety of your time at UT Tyler. That is, this assignment is present in each course in your Master of Education in Reading program. In each course, including this one, you will (1) select your artifact from work already accomplished this semester; (2) select a national standard and a state standard about which this artifact is evidence of your mastery; (3) write your rationale for including this artifact to serve as professional evidence; and (4) write your reflection on ways in which the creation of this artifact stimulated within you a set of experiences the outcome of which is your own learning/change of mind/deeper understanding that is centered on the national and state standards for literacy professionals and leaders.

   Main Tasks: Your task is to first complete the major assignments for this course. Second, you will select one or more of those assignments as artifactual evidence of your standards-based professional growth. Third, you select standards that your work exemplifies. Fourth, you will substantively write both a rationale for inclusion and a reflection on your own learning related to the artifact and the chosen standards. Expect to write a four to six sentence paragraph for each. You will submit the already-graded artifact, and, on a separate Word document, the standards and written work required. You can expect instructor feedback and a grade on this assignment. At the conclusion of the course, it is expected that you will incorporate any feedback you receive and improve your rationale and/or reflection and that you will insert the artifact and your writing into your ongoing Wix portfolio.

   Evaluation and Grading Guidelines and Criteria: All written work should be typed (double-spaced, using a 12 pt. New Times Roman font, with one-inch margins, & page numbered), properly labeled, and carefully proofread and edited. Use APA guidelines for writing style, citations, and referencing. The criteria for determining your final grade are outlined below.

Last day to Withdraw from Course: Monday, March 30th

Forms of tobacco not permitted include cigarettes, cigars, pipes, water pipes (hookah), bidis, kretekts, electronic cigarettes, smokeless tobacco, snuff, chewing tobacco, and all other tobacco products. For more information on cessation programs please visit http://www.uttyler.edu/tobacco-free

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies
Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (Stewart Hall 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar. Each semester’s Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:
- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a “W” grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy
Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date). Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, you (or the event sponsor) must notify the instructor at least two weeks prior to the date of the planned absence. At that time the instructor will set a date and time when make-up assignments will be completed.

Social Security and FERPA Statement:
It is the policy of The University of Texas at Tyler to protect the confidential nature of social security numbers. The University has changed its computer programming so that all students have an identification number. The electronic transmission of grades (e.g., via e-mail) risks violation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act; grades will not be transmitted electronically.
