Research Pool Policy Overview
School of Education
The University of Texas at Tyler

General Information

Students enrolled in EDUC 3315 (Texas Schools and Students), EPSY 3330 (Child Development and Learning), and EPSY 3340 (Adolescent Development and Learning) must fulfill a research pool requirement each semester. The research pool requirement must be completed before the final week of the academic semester.

The research requirement for these courses can be satisfied in one of two ways. First, students can fulfill the research pool requirement by volunteering to participate in approved research studies offered by the School of Education. Alternatively, students can satisfy the research pool requirement by completing alternative assignments that are equal in time and effort to the research opportunities

Participating in Approved Studies

Education is considered a data-driven discipline meaning that much of what we know about effective teaching practices and the factors that maximize student learning is the result of empirical research studies. Therefore, it is critical that students interested in pursuing an education-related degree become familiar with the process of educational research through personal experience. Further, student participation in these investigations may lead to valuable insights with the potential to expand our understanding of the determinants of student success.

To complete the research requirement, students must complete 3 hours of research credit. Research credits are earned by completing approved research studies offered by the School of Education. The number of research credits students receive in exchange for their participation is tied to the amount of time it takes to complete each research study. In general, students will receive one-half research credit for every 30 minutes devoted to the completion of approved research studies.

Research Credit Overview:

0 – 30 minutes = 0.5 Research Credits

35 – 60 minutes = 1 Research Credits

61 – 90 minutes = 1.5 Research Credits

91 – 120 minutes = 2 Research Credits

All available research opportunities will be listed on the departmental SONA systems website. The SONA systems software is a research pool management tool that students will use to schedule data collection sessions for face-to-face research opportunities and where students will access survey links for investigations relying on online data collection methods (i.e., Qualtrics, Survey Monkey, Psytoolkit, et.c). Further, the SONA system software will track the amount of research credit earned by each student meaning individual instructors will not be responsible for assigning or tracking research credits.

Because all research credits will be managed using SONA systems, students must register for a SONA systems account before they can participate in research studies. We highly suggest that all students create a SONA account within the first week of classes. The registration process will take only a few minutes and will include a brief survey to collect demographic data. This data will serve as a screening tool to determine potential study eligibility.

Students Enrolled in Multiple Courses:

There are rare situations where a student may be enrolled in multiple courses that require students to complete the research pool requirement (i.e., a student enrolled in both EDUC 3315 & EPSY 3330/3340). The research requirement will be “capped” at 3 hours of research credit per semester to avoid placing an undue burden on students enrolled in multiple courses with the research pool requirement. Stated another way, students enrolled in multiple classes with the research pool requirement will only be required to obtain 3 hours of research credit to fulfill the research requirement for both courses.

Alternative Assignments

Alternative assignments will be made available for those students who do not wish to take part in research studies. The alternative assignments involve finding, reading, and summarizing educational research. Specifically, students who choose to complete the alternative assignment will be required to read an empirical research article that is related to their personal interests and complete a 400 – 500 word critique. The critique should include a summary of the research article (i.e., purpose and findings) and a critical evaluation of the information contained within the research. The critical overview should focus on the association between the research results and information contained within the School of Education courses as well as implications the findings have for teaching practice. Students will receive one hour of research credit for each research summary that is completed and that meets quality standards. The course instructor will provide more detail regarding the proper format and expectations of the research.

How the Research Pool Requirement Affects Grades

The research pool requirement will be incorporated into EDUC 3315, EPSY 3330, and EPSY 3340 as an assignment that contributes to the final course grade. The overall point value (or weight) of the research pool requirement will be at the discretion of the course instructor.

PRESENTATION:

Groups of students will present on a content area. Each group will get at least one presentation, but there could be more depending on the size of the class. The presentation will follow a basic lesson cycle. There will be more instructions in class.

NOTEBOOK:

Each student will be responsible for a notebook addressing content areas of your teaching field. The content standards will be in it, notes from lessons, and copies of presentations, among other items.

FIELD ASSIGNMENT:

The components of this assignment include:

- Field Application
- Contacting the teacher
- Completing and Submitting Time Log
- Thank you notes to teacher
- Observation Field Report

Field Observation Guidelines

One aspect of EDUC 3300 is an opportunity to observe elementary, middle, and secondary classrooms. The 15 hours of field observation (Field) are tied to a final Field Report due at the end of the semester. Twelve (12) hours of direct/face-to-face observation include four hours at the elementary level, four hours at the middle level, and four hours at the secondary level are required. In addition, four hours will be analyzed in class using video clips.

There are unique element/characteristics associate with elementary, middle, and high school learning environments. The following prompts will help you target your observations in the schools. The prompts also will assist you in writing the reflection for each of your observations.

Elementary School:

- Describe the behavior of the teacher in the classroom. How does she/he interact with the students?
- Describe the classroom. Look for learning centers, computer areas, music stations, etc. What do the walls look like?
- What instructional strategies is the teacher using?
- Where are the students in relation to the teacher? Does this make a difference in learning?
- How do students move from one activity to the next (within the classroom, to the cafeteria, bathrooms, etc.)
- What modifications does the teacher make for particular students?

Middle School:

Conduct a student shadow study.

- Select one student to observe for the entire time. Every minute write down the student's behavior. Be able to describe what he or she is doing. For example, is the student paying attention? Active in the lesson? Demonstrating his or her understanding of the lesson? day dreaming? fooling with other students... perhaps braiding a friend's hair, etc.
- Does the student's behavior tell you anything about the teacher or the way the class is organized?
- What instructional strategies, assessment strategies, and classroom management strategies appear to work with the student?

Secondary School:

- When you enter the parking lot what is your first impression? After you get our visitor's pass and you enter the main building what is your overall impression.
- What do you see?
- Describe the hallways...cafeteria...student behavior etc.
- Once in a classroom try to determine how the teacher views his/her students? How is the teacher connecting with students? What instructional strategies, activities, or management techniques support your initial observation about the teacher?
- What instructional strategies, assessment strategies, and classroom management techniques does the teacher use that appear effective with students? Why do you think these are effective?

For each observation, you will provide a summary of the lesson and then respond to the reflective prompts for the different grade levels.

NOTE: You will arrange the observation times with your assigned teacher. EDUC 3315 classroom times will not be used for these observations. Make sure you plan ahead to complete these nine hours.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- ☑ Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- ☑ Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- ☑ Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- ☑ Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- ☑ Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION PROGRAM STANDARDS

The School of Education has adopted program standards that guide the development of teacher candidates in their understanding of the complexity of teaching. These standards are based on those developed by the Interstate New Teacher Assessment and Support Consortium (InTASC) and shared by other accredited universities in Texas and across the United States. The Standards are broad understandings and practices gained throughout the program using a constructivist model in which new learnings are assimilated and attached to prior understandings, thus, over time, building a mental structure (schema) of educational concepts.

Standard #1: Learner Development (students in general)

The teacher understands how learners grow and develop, recognizing that patterns of learning and development vary individually within and across the cognitive, linguistic, social, emotional, and physical areas, and designs and implements developmentally appropriate and challenging learning experiences.

Texas Teacher Practice Standards: 1.2, 2.1, 2.2, 2.3, 4.1

Standard #2: Learning Differences (individual students)

The teacher uses understanding of individual differences and diverse cultures and communities to ensure inclusive learning environments that enable each learner to meet high standards.

Texas Teacher Practice Standards: 1.3, 2.1, 2.2, 2.3, 4.1

Texas Teacher Practice Standards: 1.2, 1.5, 1.6, 3.1, 3.2, 3.3, 5.2

Standard #5: Application of Content

Texas Teacher Practice Standards: 1.5, 3.2, 3.3

Standard #6: Assessment

The teacher understands and uses multiple methods of assessment to engage learners in their own growth, to monitor learner progress, and to guide the teacher's and learner's decision making.

Texas Teacher Practice Standards: 1.6, 5.1, 5.2, 5.3, 5.4, 6.2

Standard #7: Planning for Instruction

Texas Teacher Practice Standards: 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, 5.1, 5.3, 5.4

Standard #8: Instructional Strategies

The teacher understands and uses a variety of instructional strategies to encourage learners to develop deep understanding of content areas and their connections, and to build skills to apply knowledge in meaningful ways.

Texas Teacher Practice Standards: 1.4, 1.5, 1.6, 5.4

Standard #9: Professional Learning and Ethical Practice
