Student Learning Outcomes & Assessments

Program Outcomes

- The student will be able to:
  - Shape campus culture by developing a shared vision.
  - Communicate and collaborate with stakeholders to promote student success.
  - Act with integrity, fairness, and in an ethical and legal manner.
  - Design curriculum, instruction, and assessment for student performance.
  - Advocate, sustain instructional program conducive to student learning and professional development.
  - Implement staff evaluation and development system.
  - Apply leadership and management principles.
  - Promote a safe physical plant.
Course Outcomes (Aligned to the Texas Education Agency’s new Principal Standards):

- Standard 1 – Instructional Leadership. The leader is responsible for ensuring every student receives high-quality instruction.
  - (A) Knowledge and skills.
    - (i) Effective instructional leaders:
      - (II) implement a rigorous curriculum aligned with state standards.

- Standard 2 – Human Capital. The leader is responsible for ensuring there are high-quality teachers and staff in every classroom and throughout the school.
  - (A) Knowledge and skills.
    - (i) Effective leaders of human capital:
      - (I) treat faculty/staff members as their most valuable resource and invest in the development, support, and supervision of the staff;
      - (II) ensure all staff have clear goals and expectations that guide them and against which they are assessed;
      - (III) are strategic in selecting and hiring candidates whose vision aligns with the schools' vision and whose skills match the schools' needs; and
      - (IV) ensure that, once hired, teachers develop and grow by building layers that support regular observations, actionable feedback, and coaching and school-wide supports so that teachers know how they are performing.

Evaluation & Grading

- Open Forum
  - The Open Forum is a place to post questions and dialogue with colleagues regarding legal issues in your class, school, or district. Postings are highly valued and strongly encouraged. Although the forum has no point value, participating can help raise a student’s final grade.

- 10 in 15 Quizzes
  - The eight 10 in 15 Quizzes require answering 10 true-false, fill-in-the-blank, multiple-answer, multiple-choice formatted questions in 15 minutes. The time limit is to ensure prompt recall of basic school law facts and concepts.

- Application Quizzes
  - The four Application Quizzes contain 15 true-false, fill-in-the-blank, multiple-answer, multiple-choice formatted questions on issues of school law designed to evaluate critical thinking skills. There is no time limit.

- TExES Patterns Quizzes
  - The five TExES Patterns Quizzes, located in the TExES Patterns folder in each module, contain three multiple-choice questions covering legal patterns discussed in each module. There is no time limit.

- Pinterest Current Events Forum
  - The student will pin five articles on the Pinterest public board School Law EDLR 5320 Fall 2015.
    - Each pin must be from a journal, newspaper, or other media source on a topic or event relating to an area of school law covered.
    - A comment addressing the article’s relevancy must be included with each pin.
  - The student will post a comment on 15 additional articles pinned on the Pinterest public board School Law EDLR 5320 Fall 2015.

- Mid-Term Exam
  - The Mid-Term is a short-answer exam requiring the student to apply their understanding of school law facts and concepts through the evaluation of four campus scenarios. Responses should be no more than 300 words per question.

- TExES Practice Exam
  - The TExES Practice Exam is not graded.

- Final Exam
  - The Final is a 60-question multiple-choice exam assessing the student’s overall knowledge of school law facts and concepts presented throughout the course.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Students Rights and Responsibilities
To know and understand the policies that affect your rights and responsibilities as a student at UT-Tyler, please follow this link: http://www.uttyler.edu/wellness/rightsresponsibilities.php

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness
If you are repeating this course for a grade replacement, you must file intent to receive grade forgiveness with the registrar by the 12th day of class. Failure to do so will result in both the original and repeated grade used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates will receive grade forgiveness (grade replacement) for only three course repeats; graduates, for two course repeats during his or her career at UT Tyler.

Course Drop Policy
Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course dropped after the 12th day of class (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).
Exceptions to the 6-drop rule are in the course catalog. Petitions for exemptions are submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

Disability Services

In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodation must provide documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Support Services counselor. If you have a disability, including a learning disability, for which you request an accommodation, please contact Ida MacDonald in the Disability Support Services office in UC 282, or call (903) 566-7079.

Student Absence due to Religious Observance

Students who anticipate being absent from class due to a religious observance are requested to inform the instructor of such absences by the second class meeting of the semester.

Student Absence for University-Sponsored Events and Activities

If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, you (or the event sponsor) must notify the instructor at least two weeks prior to the date of the planned absence. At that time the instructor will set a date and time when make-up assignments will be completed.

Social Security and FERPA Statement

It is the policy of The University of Texas at Tyler to protect the confidential nature of social security numbers. The University has changed its computer programming so that all students have an identification number. The electronic transmission of grades (e.g., via e-mail) risks violation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act; grades will not be transmitted electronically.

Student Standards of Academic Conduct

Disciplinary proceedings may be initiated against any student who engages in scholastic dishonesty, including, but not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts.

(i) "Cheating" includes, but is not limited to:

- copying from another student's test paper;
- using during a test, materials not authorized by the person giving the test;
- failure to comply with instructions given by the person administering the test;
- possession during a test of materials which are not authorized by the person giving the test, such as class notes or specifically designed "crib notes". The presence of textbooks constitutes a violation if they have been specifically prohibited by the person administering the test;
- using, buying, stealing, transporting, or soliciting in whole or part the contents of an unadministered test, test key, homework solution, or computer program;
- collaborating with or seeking aid from another student during a test or other assignment without authority;
- discussing the contents of an examination with another student who will take the examination;
- divulging the contents of an examination, for the purpose of preserving questions for use by another, when the instructor has designated that the examination is not to be removed from the examination room or not to be returned or to be kept by the student;
- substituting for another person, or permitting another person to substitute for oneself to take a course, a test, or any course-related assignment;
- paying or offering money or other valuable thing to, or coercing another person to obtain an unadministered test, test key, homework solution, or computer program, or information about an unadministered test, test key, homework solution or computer program;
- falsifying research data, laboratory reports, and/or other academic work offered for credit;
- taking, keeping, misplacing, or damaging the property of UT-Tyler, or of another, if the student knows or reasonably should know that an unfair academic advantage would be gained by such conduct; and,
• misrepresenting facts, including providing false grades or resumes, for the purpose of obtaining an academic or financial benefit or injuring another student academically or financially.

(ii) "Plagiarism" includes, but is not limited to, the appropriation, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means another's work and the submission of it as one's own academic work offered for credit.

(iii) "Collusion" includes, but is not limited to, the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing academic assignments offered for credit or collaboration with another person to commit a violation of any section of the rules on scholastic dishonesty.
