UT TYLER EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

SAFETY MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

All employees receive training in safety and hazardous materials through orientation, on-line training and periodic training sessions. Periodic training is provided to all employees in safety and hazardous materials. Additional training may be provided by the Environmental Health and Safety Office based on the employee’s location and specific job responsibilities. Employees who commit safety violations will be subject to the University’s disciplinary action process.

_Return to the Table of Contents_