UT TYLER EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

TELEPHONE USAGE

Prompt, courteous answers to telephone calls should be the rule for everyone. It is good practice to identify the department and yourself when answering or making a call. Although an incoming call may be for someone else, you should offer to help the caller in any way possible. Local personal telephone calls are not prohibited, but must be restricted to an absolute minimum. Personal long distance calls are prohibited.

Return to the Table of Contents