On the FAFSA Form Answers tab, the student sees the answers that they and, if applicable, their contributor(s) provided on their FAFSA® form. If any of the provided answers are incorrect, the student can choose to start a correction.

School Information

On the School Information tab, the student sees information about the college(s) and/or career school(s) that they selected to send their FAFSA® information. The student can compare the graduation rate, retention rate, transfer rate, default rate, median debt upon completion, and average annual cost of their selected schools.
Next Steps

On the Next Steps tab, the student sees comments that pertain to their FAFSA® form. Some comments may require the student to start a correction or send additional documentation to their school. Other comments may be informational and do not require any further action from the student.

More Resources

Lastly, along the right side of their FAFSA Submission Summary, the student can choose from additional resources, including visiting Aid Summary or College Scorecard.

Further Information

If the student provided a valid email address on their FAFSA form, they’ll receive an email with instructions on how to access an online copy of their FAFSA Submission Summary.

The student can view or print their FAFSA Submission Summary by

1. Logging in to StudentAid.gov using their FSA ID (account username and password);
2. Navigating to the account Dashboard;
3. Selecting their processed FAFSA submission from the “My Activity” page, which will bring them to the Status Center “Details” page; and
4. Selecting “View FAFSA Submission Summary.”

The student will receive an email when their FAFSA Submission Summary is available to view beginning in the first half of March.
