Canvas:

This online class will be conducted through Canvas. If you experience any problems logging into Canvas or any technical problems with the system you should seek help from Campus Computing. They can be reached via email at itsupport@patriots.uttyler.edu. Please include your full name, student ID number and date of birth in any communications you send to them.

Course Description:

We will explore American history from human origins in North America (~13,000 BCE) to the Civil War (1865). In doing so, we will examine social, political, environmental, cultural, diplomatic, and military history and how each together shaped the course of American history.

Content Objectives:

Upon completion of this course, students should be able to:

1. Demonstrate a strong understanding of the development of the United States in both a domestic and global context.
2. Develop analytical skills through thinking deeply, reading actively, and writing carefully about American history.
3. Gain a strong sense of scholarly skepticism by balancing everything with hefty amounts of context and perspective; Or, in the spirit of Voltaire, embrace the certainty that nothing is certain and that everything is and ought to be open to (careful and thoughtful) interpretation.
4. Appreciate and understand that accurate interpretations (see above) can only rest on ample and sturdy evidence.

More Specifically, after completing this course, you should be able to:

1. Identify and evaluate significant individuals, events, and eras in the history of the United States.
2. Recognize and analyze political, social, and economic changes in the history of the United States.
3. Identify and evaluate causes and effects of domestic and international issues and events in the history of the United States.
4. Apply relative chronology through the sequencing of significant individuals, events, and eras in the history of the United States.

Important Note:

I encourage you to meet with me or email me regularly to discuss or clarify lectures or reading—or to talk about American history in general. My job (and satisfaction) is as much to work with students on an individual basis as it is to lecture and facilitate discussion. Please keep this in mind throughout the semester.

Also, some semesters, life gets in the way. Should you have one of these semesters, I am more than happy to talk to you about what to do. But if the trauma is too great, I strongly suggest you drop one or all of your courses. Your education is vitally important, but there are things that outrank even education sometimes—and you have to make that call when it is necessary. I cannot grade you on how well or poorly you deal with your life at given moments. Your grades reflect your performance in class—not how well you are dealing with other things. I wish all of us a semester in which these things aren't issues.

Another Important Note:

When you finish this course, my goal is for you to have a strong understanding of the major themes, characters, and connections in the story of early America, and I hope you will recognize how enormously impactful this period has been (and remains) in our world today—politically, militarily, environmentally, diplomatically, socially, culturally, and so on. To fully understand and appreciate any story, it is imperative that you know-well the characters and events in that story. So you must commit to memory a lot of material (characters and events) for this class.

What class/subject does not require that you remember things? This said, I recognize and appreciate that specific names, events, etc., fade in time. (They fade for me, too.) That's okay. This stuff is the scaffolding. Like scaffolding for any structure, real or perceived, it is critically important early on, but it is not meant to stay forever—just long enough such that the finished product emerges in all its glory and remains for the ages. Simply put, the finished product for this course is your general understanding and appreciation for the early American past—an understanding and appreciation that I hope will remain long after the details fade.

Required Reading and Materials:

1. Textbook:

This semester the book is a free PDF textbook. The PDF file is provided for you in Canvas and you can download it from there. The website is also provided below.

Website: <https://openstax.org/details/books/us-history>

Also, PowerPoints, outlines, notes, timelines, articles, videos, lectures, etc. uploaded onto Canvas

Course Structure:

All modules will be available for a limited period of time, and you may work through them at your own pace so long as you complete all required materials for each module before the exam for those modules ends. The modules will close (i.e. no longer be available) at the end of the exam period for those modules. Check Canvas for due dates.

Waiting until the last minute to do the assignments is not advised. Having a computer issue, internet issue, Canvas issue, or any other issue on the date an assignment is due is not an excuse for not completing an assignment, and no additional time will be granted. If you do the work early and an issue presents itself, then there is time for us to work together and resolve it so that you can submit the work by the due date.

As all quizzes and assignments are available online for some period of time, they cannot be made up if they are not completed before the modules closes. Individual exams may not be made up for any reason. If a student misses one exam, they must take the final exam as a grade replacement. A second missed exam will stand as a zero. No make-up exams will be offered.

Online Quizzes:

There will be 11 quizzes, each consisting of 20 multiple-choice and true/false over the lectures, textbook, and unit notes for each unit. Each quiz is worth 20 points. Quizzes are designed to help familiarize you with at least some of the important material that will be on the exams and to make sure you are reading. These quizzes are open book and open note. Module Quizzes are a total of 200 points for the semester and one of these grades is dropped. No late work is accepted.

Online Assignments:

Additionally, there will be 15 assignments over the course of the semester and they will vary in nature. They will be worth 5 points each. The lowest two of the assignment grades will be dropped at the end of the semester, so 13 will count for a total of 65 points. No late work is accepted. The student introduction grade will not be dropped.

There will also be one writing assignment given over the course of the semester. It is worth 20 points and the grade will not be dropped.

Exams:

There will be four semester tests. Each exam will consist of a mixture of multiple choice and true/false questions for a total of 100 points. There is a study guide posted for each exam. If you miss a test, there are no make-up exams given, and you will have to take the final exam, which is cumulative. The final is optional for students who did not miss an exam. Tests count for a total of 400 points. No lockdown browser or proctoring software is required for exams or quizzes this semester. However, exams are NOT open book or open note and outside resources, like google, are not allowed. To ensure academic honesty, you must complete the quizzes for each module before taking the exam, or else you will be given a 0 on the test. Once you answer a question, you cannot go back to it and there is a time limit. These measures are taken because I do not require a lockdown browser or test monitoring software on exam since they generally make students have anxiety and score poorly.

Points Breakdown:

Online Quizzes: 200 pts

Online Assignments: 75pts

Exam I: 100 pts

Exam II: 100 pts

Exam III: 100 pts

Exam IV: 100 pts

685 points

Final Grade Scale:

More than 89.5% of total points available = A

79.5% - 89.4% of pts = B

69.5% - 79.4% of pts = C

59.5% - 69.4% of pts = D

Below 59.5% of total points available = F

Schedule/Topic Outline: Check Canvas for all due dates and Test dates – the due date is the absolute last day to turn in that assignment. You can work ahead and finish early, you should be doing work each week and not waiting until it is due to start.

Getting Started Module and Syllabus Quiz are Due by 1/22 (1/25 is Census Day)

All work from Modules 1-3 and Test #1 are Due by 2/5

All work from Modules 4 – 5 and Test #2 are Due by 2/26

All work from Modules 6 – 8 and Test #3 are Due by 4/2

All work from Modules 9 – 10 and Test #4 are Due by 4/23

The Final Exam is Due by 4/28

Make-up Policy:

Again, NO LATE WORK WILL BE ACCEPTED. You have ample time to complete each assignment, at least a week, and waiting until the last minute to do an assignment is not advised. If you have a computer issue, internet issue, or any other issue on the date an assignment is due is not an excuse for not completing an assignment and no additional time will be granted. If you do the work early and an issue presents itself, then there is time for us to work together and resolve it so that you can submit the work by the due date.

There are no make-up exams given once a test has been missed. If you miss an exam for any reason you will need to take the final exam as a grade replacement.

Syllabus Notice:

The instructor reserves the right to alter the syllabus; however, students will be given ample warning to any possible changes.

Email Policy:

Per university request, I will only communicate with students via your Patriot email accounts. The university has had several problems reaching students with vital questions or information because they do not check their Patriot email, and they have asked faculty to require that students use their Patriot email accounts. All responses to student email will be sent only to your Patriot email account (even if you send the email from some other account). Email sent from any non-Patriot email account will not be answered.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at <http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar>. Each semester's Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.

- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a "W" grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.

Student Absence for University-Sponsored Events and Activities

If you intend to be absent for a university-sponsored event or activity, you (or the event sponsor) must notify the instructor at least two weeks prior to the date of the planned absence. At that time the instructor will set a date and time when make-up assignments will be completed.

Social Security and FERPA Statement

It is the policy of The University of Texas at Tyler to protect the confidential nature of social security numbers. The University has changed its computer programming so that all students have an identification number. The electronic transmission of grades (e.g., via e-mail) risks violation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act; grades will not be transmitted electronically.

If you require assistance during an evacuation, inform your instructor in the first week of class. Do not re-enter the building unless given permission by University Police, Fire department, or Fire Prevention Services.

- ii. "Plagiarism" includes, but is not limited to, the appropriation, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means another's work and the submission of it as one's own academic work offered for credit.
 - iii. "Collusion" includes, but is not limited to, the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing academic assignments offered for credit or collaboration with another person to commit a violation of any section of the rules on scholastic dishonesty.
