Course Overview and Student Learning Outcomes:

Our focus is Western Europe in later 1500s, where across many principalities a series of female rulers came to power, in the words of the Protestant leader John Knox, "a monstrous regiment of women." Our goal is to study several of these women, the challenges they faced, and how well they fared in a very turbulent but also highly patriarchal and misogynistic society.

Course Requirements and Grading Policy:

Your grade is based on written reviews of the four assigned books. Each paper is worth 25% of your total grade. Late papers will not be accepted unless there is a family or medical emergency with official documentation.

Final Withdrawal Date: June 26
