Management on the Move

Moving and Learning with a Purpose

with Maria Corte

Keynotes – Professional Development - Presentations

Maria Corte has been a Physical Education teacher since 1994. She was awarded the 2005 SHAPE Southwest District High School Physical Educator of the Year, 2004 SHAPE AZAHPERD High School Physical Educator of the Year, 2007 American Diabetes Association Arizona Coordinator of the Year and several Teacher of the Year awards. She has been fortunate enough to teach on the same campus his entire career and in 2003 she was awarded Teacher of the Year for her campus.

Maria has served as a member and consultant for the Gopher Sport Advisory Board since 2006. She has been a keynote at several events including 2018 PHYS ED CONNECTIONS Conference General Closing Session in Stillwater, MN; 2017 PA PE SUMMIT General Opening Session in Pennsylvania, PA; 2016 TAAHPERD State PE Convention General Opening Session in Galveston, TX; 2016 SHAPE Southern District PE Convention General Opening Session in Williamsburg, VA; 2015 James Madison University Health & Physical Activity Institute General Closing Session in Harrisonburg, VA and 2014 James Madison University Health & Physical Activity Institute General Opening Session in Harrisonburg, VA.

Maria loves to share her ideas with colleagues around the world. She has delivered over 200 presentations including: TAAHPERD Summer Conference, APE State Conference, Vail Summer PE Conference, Harford PE Professional Development, Buffalo PE Conference, Oakland PE Professional Development, Cal Poly PE Summer Conference, Katy PE Professional Development, HAAHPERD State PE 5 Island Conference, Grand Rapids PE Professional Development, GAAHPERD PE Conference Lakeside PE Professional Development and University of Kentucky PAWS PE Conference.

Maria's passion for physical education is evident during the presentations. She is a fun, energetic, and enthusiastic presenter. When presenting, she always carries the same flow of energy throughout the whole presentation. The teachers walk away with a variety of activities they can easily incorporate within their school's curriculum. Her presentations emphasize efficient management skills while teaching class activities. Teachers will learn how to combine management strategies and skill instruction along with new ideas on warm ups, innovatively designed fitness activities, team building/ice breaker activities, closing strategies/games and more. In addition, this training will focus on creating a positive teaching environment and motivation.
