Course Description and Objectives

Written constitutions define the powers and responsibilities of government while simultaneously establishing the limits of government. To better understand these concepts, this course is designed to provide an introductory analysis and evaluation of the political systems established by both the U.S. and Texas constitutions. Throughout the course students will:

- Critically examine the philosophical foundations of both political systems by exploring the historical debates and writings that shaped the formation of these documents.
- Distinguish and identify the key differences and similarities between the three branches of government at the National and State level.
• Appraise current events (at both the National and State level) to highlight the applicability and importance of both constitutions in today’s society.

Credit Hours: 3; Prerequisites: None

Required Texts

3) The Professor, through Blackboard, will post additional readings.

Requirements, Dates, and Grades

Given the nature of this course, coupled with its brevity, this class will be reading/work intensive. Since we do not “meet” for class, completing the required assignments should not be too daunting as they are structured to allow you to work at your own pace. Accordingly, your grade in this course will be based on the following:

Online Discussion

Throughout the week I will post discussion questions in Blackboard’s Group Discussion Board. It is expected that students will offer comments, questions, and replies to the discussion questions that are posted as well as to the posts of your classmates. You are expected to actively participate in discussion, to at least 5 discussion questions a week. I will be reading all messages and I will participate in the discussion when important/interesting point(s) are being argued or discussed. Postings are expected to be carefully crafted responses (a minimum of 4 sentences in length) and will be evaluated on:

- The quality of the posting, which uses references from the readings, current events, or personal experience to support comments
- The degree that the postings promote discussion with classmates
- Student engagement with their classmates posts

Weekly posts will be graded on the following scale:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Reason</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>0</td>
<td>No Participation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>50</td>
<td>Minimal response to the Unit Questions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>75</td>
<td>Postings responds to the question, but 1) does not offer support for claims and 2) does not stimulate further class discussion</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>100</td>
<td>Postings fully address the discussion questions and stimulate substantial follow-up postings. Also, student actively engages in the posts of other classmates.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
For each week of class, the discussion forum will open at 12:00 a.m. Monday and close at 11:59 p.m. the following Sunday (the exception being in “Week 5,” where the discussion forum will close on Friday, August 15th at 11:59 p.m.).

Compare/Contrast Papers

The overarching theme of this class is for students to learn the differences and similarities between the systems of government established by the federal government and the State of Texas. Hence, students are required to write papers in which they compare and contrast the Legislative, Executive, and Judicial branches of government codified by the U.S. and Texas constitutions. You are required to submit a total of three (3) Compare/Contrast Papers for this term (i.e. a paper on the Executive branch, a paper on the Legislative branch, and a paper on the Judicial branch). These papers should include 1) a discussion of the main differences and similarities of the branches established by both constitutions. 2) Using one of the main differences and similarities you analyze, discuss a current event at either the federal-level or here in Texas that elucidates the point. 3) A discussion of which government’s branch you most prefer and why.

Papers will be graded according to the following rubric:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Paper Section</th>
<th>Expectations</th>
<th>Possible Points</th>
<th>Points Received</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Introduction</td>
<td>A strong introduction states the overall topic and sets the stage for the remaining paper in an interesting manner.</td>
<td>5</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Content (Part 1)</td>
<td>A clear elaboration of at least 7 main differences and similarities in how the branches differ from one other (e.g. size, how membership is determined, how members are elected). Student provides strong analysis of the topics discussed. To support these claims, references to class readings and, if applicable, outside sources are used to support their analysis.</td>
<td>40</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Content (Part 2)</td>
<td>An appropriate current event at the National or State level is used to elucidate one of the main differences/similarities they highlight in Part 1.</td>
<td>15</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Content (Part 3)</td>
<td>A clear elaboration and analysis on which branch of government the student prefers. In explaining/answering this question, students clearly supports this argument based on their knowledge of the readings and citation of any outside sources to bolster their argument.</td>
<td>20</td>

<tr>
<td>Conclusion</td>
<td>A strong conclusion provides a concise review of their key conclusions and analysis.</td>

Policy Concerning Blackboard and Submitting Papers

The Professor is conscious to the fact that Blackboard can be unreliable at times. If you are having trouble posting in the discussion forums, accessing posted readings, or submitting an assignment, please inform me about the issue and attach the relevant assignment. All times listed in this syllabus correspond to the Central Time Zone, since this corresponds with the time zone Tyler, Texas is located in. Late Compare/Contrast Papers and the Midterm Exam will be penalized a letter grade for each day the paper(s) are late and none will be accepted after August 17, 2014.

If any conflict (others tests, travel plans, etc.) with an assignment’s due date exists that you feel will not allow you to complete any of the assignments on time, notify me of your situation by Monday, July 21, 2014. Be advised that allowances (i.e., extensions) will only be given in extreme cases with my discretion as to what I define as extreme. Late papers will only be accepted, without penalty, in the case of an unforeseen event, such as a sudden emergency (death in your family, illness, etc.), or if you have an approved absence by the Dean of Students (see also: Student Absence for University-Sponsored Events and Activities and Student Absence due to Religious Observance sections of the syllabus).

Policy on Academic Integrity

The UT Tyler community regards cheating as an extremely serious matter and deals severely with those who violate the standards of academic integrity.

Examples of academic dishonesty include (but are not limited to):

- Copying from another person’s test paper
- During a test, possession of materials not authorized by the person administering the test
- Discussing the contents of an examination with another student who will take the examination or the divulging of examination contents to another when the Professor has allowed the exam to be kept by the student
- Working with others in taking tests or preparing academic assignments when not authorized by the Professor
• Obtaining by any means another person’s work and submitting that work as one’s own. This includes the downloading of academic papers or the purchase of papers written by others.

If a student is suspected of academic dishonesty, the classroom instructor may ask the student to meet with him or her to discuss the incident. A student may admit to allegations of academic dishonesty, waive the right to a hearing and accept penalties imposed by the instructor. The student may also deny all allegations and ask to see the Dean of Student Affairs. An accused student may accept the decision of the Dean of Student Affairs or ask for a hearing before an impartial hearing officer appointed by the university. Witnesses may be called and evidence presented. The hearing officer will consider all evidence and make a decision. The decision of the hearing officer may be appealed to the President by either the student or the Dean of Student Affairs. For a discussion of possible penalties, please see: http://www.uttyler.edu/mainsite/conduct.html

Class Conduct and Threatening Behavior

Given the nature of political discourse, some of the topics discussed and debated in class may be sensitive to some students. It is expected that students, regardless of the subject matter, maintain civility in their class comments. The University and the Professor seek to promote a safe environment where students may participate in debates, discussion, and other objectives concurrent with the educational process without compromising their health, safety, and welfare. Concurrent with this ideal, mutual courtesy and respect should govern all classroom conduct and responses to discussion posts. Therefore, threats of physical harm or verbal abuse will not be tolerated in this class.

Disability Services

In accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the ADA Amendments Act (ADAAA) the University offers accommodations to students with learning, physical and/or psychiatric disabilities. If you have a disability, including non-visible disabilities such as chronic diseases, learning disabilities, head injury, PTSD or ADHD, or you have a history of modifications or accommodations in a previous educational environment you are encouraged to contact the Student Accessibility and Resources office and schedule an interview with the Accessibility Case Manager/ADA Coordinator, Cynthia Lowery Staples. Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies
Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at: http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar. Each semester’s Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions that students need to be aware of. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a “W” grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

The Census Date for this semester is Thursday, July 17, 2014.

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (see Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
Social Security and FERPA Statement

It is the policy of The University of Texas at Tyler to protect the confidential nature of social security numbers. The University has changed its computer programming so that all students have an identification number. The electronic transmission of grades (e.g. via e-mail) risks violation of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act; grades will not be transmitted electronically.

Changes to the Syllabus

The information contained in this syllabus, other than the grade and absence policies, may be subject to change with reasonable advance notice, as deemed appropriate by the Professor.
