Course Structure & Methods of Instruction (II.D.3)

In this course, class time is will be comprised of lectures, discussion, and group activities. The primary emphasis of this class will be on students participating in activates that are designed to improve their basic counseling skills. You should come to class prepared to discuss assigned readings and to be actively involved in your own learning. You are required to be an active participant during class activities.

Course Assignments

Participation: (15 points) – Learning/teaching is a dynamic social process. As clinically oriented course, your presence and active engagement are essential. Students are required to read all assigned course materials before class begins, so that they can actively engage with course content during class. Students are expected to regularly participate in class and will be required to participate in experiential learning activities.
Tape #1: Peer Review (10 points) – You will work with a partner on this project, where you will need to demonstrate the following basic counseling skills (i.e., Opening, Encouragers, Paraphrase, Reflection of Feeling). For this assignment you will submit the following items:

(1) A video recorded 10-minute counseling session submitted through CANVAS.
(2) A completed Counseling Skills Evaluation form that you completed for yourself.
(3) A completed Counseling Skills Evaluation form that you completed for your partner.

You will be graded on this assignment based on the accuracy in which you completed the Counseling Skills Evaluation forms.

Tape #2: Midterm Review (20 points) – You will submit a video recorded 15-minute counseling session via CANVAS with a completed Counseling Skills Evaluation form (note: hard copy submitted in class). During your session you will need to demonstrate all of the basic skills we have discussed in class up to this point (i.e., Opening, Encouragers, Paraphrase, Reflection of Feeling, Reflection of Meaning, Summarization, Closing)

You are allowed to ask one question during your fifteen-minute session. Each subsequent question beyond the first question will result in you losing points off of your grade for the assignment.

You will be graded on how successful you are at incorporating and executing the basic counseling skills into your session.

Transcription of Tape #2 (20 points) – You will need complete a transcription of your entire 15-minute session for Tape #2. You must include every utterance made in the session by you or the client (e.g., “uhm,” sighs, “like you know,” etc.). On your transcription you should use 12 pt. times new roman font. You should single space responses from the client and/or counselor and use double space to delineate changes in the speaker.

Example:

Counselor: It seems like you’ve really been under a lot of stress recently. Um, it seems, um, that you have a lot going on at work, and that when you come up from work it’s hard for you to decompress.

Client: Yea, I think that’s true. It’s hard for me to unwind, because I feel like as soon as I get home my kids and spouse are ready for me to pay attention to them, and that’s hard.

Counselor: It sounds like you feel like you want a break, or some time for yourself to catch your breath.

Client: I sure do; but, it’s not realistic that’ll ever happen.

After you have completed the written transcription of the counseling session you will complete a 2-3 page reflection paper that addresses the following questions:

• Describe what you perceived that you did well during this session.

• Describe what you perceived that you did not do well during this session, and/or areas you want to focus on improving?

• Describe difficulties and/or challenges that came up for you during the session.
Tape #3: (25 points) – You will submit a video recorded 20-minute counseling session via CANVAS with a completed Counseling Skills Evaluation form (note: hard copy submitted in class). During your session you will need to demonstrate all of the basic skills we have discussed in class up to this point (i.e., Opening, Encouragers, Paraphrase, Reflection of Feeling, Reflection of Meaning, Summarization, Closing, Immediacy, Confronting Discrepancies).

You are allowed to ask one question during your twenty-minute session. Each subsequent question beyond the first question will result in you losing points off of your grade for the assignment.

You will be graded on how successfully you are able to incorporate and demonstrate basic counseling skills that you have been presented.

Tape #4: Final Examination (210 points) – You will submit a video recorded 25-minute counseling session via CANVAS with a completed Counseling Skills Evaluation form. During your taped session you will need to demonstrate all of the basic skills we have discussed in class up to this point.

You are allowed to ask two questions during your twenty-minute session. Each subsequent question beyond the second question will result in you losing points off of your grade for the assignment.

This assignment is designated as evidence of fulfilling certain standards of CACREP. This means that this assignment is seen as an indicator of minimum standards of professional competency necessary to enter the field ready to practice. This assignment will be graded using a rubric displayed on pg. 13.

Evaluation & Grading (II.D.5)

Grading will be based on points assigned in the following areas:

Grade assignments based on the above will be: A = 90-100 points; B = 80-89 points; C = 70-79 points; D = 60-69 points; F = below 60 points. You must receive a A or a B in order to receive credit for passing this course.
Preparation & Participation

Attendance – While it is strongly recommended that you do not miss any classes, you are permitted to miss one class (2.5 hours) with no penalty. If you are going to miss a class, it is expected that you will notify the professor ahead of time. With a second absence, you will receive a one-letter grade deduction from your final grade in the course (e.g., A → B) unless you write a letter to the instructor that explains extenuating circumstances for both absences. The instructor will then decide if both the first and the second absences are excusable. Each subsequent absence will result in the drop of a letter grade.

Class Punctuality - Students are expected to attend classes on time. Students who are consistently late at the beginning of class will have points deducted from their participation grade. Late behavior in excess of one class will result in a drop of attendance and participation points for each incident.

Participation- Participation is an essential component of this course. Students are expected to come to class fully prepared to actively participate in class activities and discussions. During class students will be provided with opportunities for dialogue, questions, and to engage in activities related to course content. In order to receive full participation points for this course, students will need to stay engaged during class time and regularly participate in class discussion and activities.

Late Policy

Assignments are due when class begins on the assigned date. Assignments submitted after class begins will be considered late. Late assignments will be reduced by 10% (one letter grade) for each day the assignment is submitted late. After three days past the due date, late assignments will no longer be accepted, and the student will receive a zero for the assignment.

Use of Technology

Cell phones are to be turned off or put in silent mode during class. Cell phones should not be visible during class, so please keep them in your pants, purse, backpack, etc. If you are experiencing an emergency or extenuating circumstance where you need to check your phone during class, please inform me of this before class begins. Please be respectful and DO NOT TEXT MESSAGE.

Students who chose to use a laptop computer should only do so for taking notes. Students who use laptop computers are prohibited from (a) surfing the internet, (b) checking email, and (c) working on other assignments during class. If the instructor becomes aware of a student using their laptop for any reason other than taking notes, he may ask that student to cease bringing their computer into the classroom.

Communication Policy

University policy requires that all e-mail correspondence between students and instructor be done via the Patriot account. Check your Patriot E-Mail frequently. Announcements pertaining to class or departmental business will be sent to the student’s Patriot account. In accord with university policy your instructor will respond only to student correspondence sent via Patriot E-mail. Please do not contact the instructor via the Canvas messaging.
Diversity Statement

Students are expected to be sensitive to individual and multicultural differences and to treat one another with respect during their experience in this course. Sensitivity to gender/race/ethnicity/ability/sexuality is expected and disrespectful language and/or behavior will not be tolerated.

The American Counseling Association has explicit policies, standards, and ethical guidelines regarding diversity issues. In this class, you will be expected to reflect the standards and ethics of the counseling profession, especially in the area of diversity. Any use of written or verbal language should be consistent with the respect and tolerance that are the cornerstone of the counseling profession and should reflect the ACA Human Rights Committee’s 1987 statement on tolerance, which states:

In order to guarantee that each individual is free to pursue his/her potential, each member of ACA is charged to (a) engage in ongoing examination of his/her own attitudes, feelings, stereotypic views, perceptions and behaviors that might have prejudicial or limiting impact on others; (b) contribute to an increased sensitivity on the part of other individuals, groups or institutions to the barriers to opportunity imposed by discrimination; (c) advocate equal rights for all individuals through concerted personal, professional, and political activity.

Informed Consent Statement

Faculty members are dedicated to the educational, personal, and professional growth and development of our students. Faculty are in a unique position as both instructors who assess students’ academic skills and members of the counseling profession with an ethical obligation to the profession. In both of these roles, it is the faculty’s responsibility to evaluate student competencies within the realm of professional counseling and to address any concerns regarding students’ professional competence. As such, please be aware of the following information regarding this course:

- The counseling profession encourages that counselors fully integrate their own personal attributes and identity, as well as their strengths and weaknesses, into therapeutic processes. Therefore, self-awareness is critical because this knowledge relates to being an effective therapist.

- There will be an emphasis in many courses on self-awareness/exploration, as well as giving feedback to peers. Although uncomfortable at times, we encourage students to be open to self-exploration, since we frequently ask clients to do so.

- At times, class may include experiential and self-awareness exercises. It is important to distinguish between sharing one’s emotional reactions to such experiential class activities and revealing information about one’s personal history. Self-disclosure of personal history is not required in order to successfully pass any course; however, students may be expected to share their reactions to experiential activities.

- Self-disclosures will not be used as a basis for grading in any course. However, should a student disclose information indicating impairment or the potential for harm to clients, the faculty member may take appropriate action in accordance with the ACA Code of Ethics (2014).

- Students often experience personal growth as they progress through the program. However, the courses are not meant to be a means of personal therapy. The focus in classes is on self-awareness and the enhancement and growth of necessary counselor skills.

- Please be aware that, although all instructors strive to create a safe environment for any personal disclosures, we cannot guarantee that other students will maintain the confidentiality of any such disclosures that are made.

- It is each student’s responsibility to determine an appropriate level of self-disclosure (i.e. the content and depth of personal information that you share) in experiential learning activities.

Grade Replacement/Forgiveness and Census Date Policies

Students repeating a course for grade forgiveness (grade replacement) must file a Grade Replacement Contract with the Enrollment Services Center (ADM 230) on or before the Census Date of the semester in which the course will be repeated. (For Spring 2019, the Census Date is January 28th.) Grade Replacement Contracts are available in the Enrollment Services Center or at http://www.uttyler.edu/registrar. Each semester’s Census Date can be found on the Contract itself, on the Academic Calendar, or in the information pamphlets published each semester by the Office of the Registrar.

Failure to file a Grade Replacement Contract will result in both the original and repeated grade being used to calculate your overall grade point average. Undergraduates are eligible to exercise grade replacement for only three course repeats during their career at UT Tyler; graduates are eligible for two grade replacements. Full policy details are printed on each Grade Replacement Contract.

The Census Date (January 28th) is the deadline for many forms and enrollment actions of which students need to be aware. These include:

- Submitting Grade Replacement Contracts, Transient Forms, requests to withhold directory information, approvals for taking courses as Audit, Pass/Fail or Credit/No Credit.
- Receiving 100% refunds for partial withdrawals. (There is no refund for these after the Census Date)
- Schedule adjustments (section changes, adding a new class, dropping without a “W” grade)
- Being reinstated or re-enrolled in classes after being dropped for non-payment
- Completing the process for tuition exemptions or waivers through Financial Aid

State-Mandated Course Drop Policy

Texas law prohibits a student who began college for the first time in Fall 2007 or thereafter from dropping more than six courses during their entire undergraduate career. This includes courses dropped at another 2-year or 4-year Texas public college or university. For purposes of this rule, a dropped course is any course that is dropped after the census date (See Academic Calendar for the specific date).

Exceptions to the 6-drop rule may be found in the catalog. Petitions for exemptions must be submitted to the Enrollment Services Center and must be accompanied by documentation of the extenuating circumstance. Please contact the Enrollment Services Center if you have any questions.
