At 2:35 a.m. on July 15, 2019, RA John Doe was walking to the University Pines Clubhouse to meet a resident who locked themselves out of their apartment. Upon approaching the clubhouse, RA Doe spotted Resident Ryan McCoy and Guest Miranda Ruiz rolling a keg of Blue Moon into University Pines Apartment 913. RA Doe contacted RA Jane Roe to address the lock-out while he address the ongoing incident involving Resident McCoy and Guest Ruiz.

At 2:37 a.m., RA Doe called University Police Department Dispatch to request assistance with an active alcohol incident. UPD Officer Tyler Austin arrived at 2:45 a.m. and met RA Doe outside of the University Pines Clubhouse. Officer Austina and RA Doe walked together to University Pines Apartment 913.

Before knocking on the door, Officer Austin and RA Doe smelt marijuana and pinpointed it to apartment 913. Furthermore, Officer Austin and RA Doe heard loud music playing and a conversation where Resident McCoy told Guest Ruiz to do a keg stand. Officer Austin instructed RA Doe to go to the back patio in case any of the alleged decides to sneak out the back door or pour out their alcohol there before opening the door.

At 2:58 a.m., Officer Austin knocked on the door, identified himself as a police officer, and instructed the door be opened. The music was turned off and Guest Ruiz opened the door. Officer Austin then instructed RA Doe to come to the front. Once RA Doe was at the apartment door, Officer Austin asked for permission to enter. Resident McCoy stated "hell no. You ain't my momma; don't you dare tell me what to do." Officer Austin said he will get a search warrant. Resident McCoy then told Officer Austin and RA Doe that they could enter the apartment.

Upon entering the apartment, the half barrel keg of blue moon was noticed in the common area, near the patio door. There was also one 1.75 lieters of Smirnoff raspberry vodka in the trashcan.

Officer Austin asked who was the owner of the apartment. Resident McCoy stated he was. Officer Austin then instructed RA Doe to collect Guest Ruiz's information in the common area of the apartment while he searches the apartment with Resident McCoy.

RA Doe asked for Guest Ruiz's information, and she yelled, "I go to TJC!" and then began a physical altercation with RA Doe. Officer Austin heard the commotion and separated Guest Ruiz from RA Doe.

Guest Ruiz was then handcuffed because of the physical altercation that gave RA Doe a black eye. During the search, Officer Austin found a joint of marijuana in Resident McCoy's room (University Pines Apartment 913A). As such, Resident McCoy was then arrested for possession of illegal substances and providing alcohol to a minor.

This situation ended at 4:12 a.m.
